OUR TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,

ABRAHAM LINCOLN,

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

ANDREW JOHNSON,

OF TENNESSEE.

The Journal Becomes Discouraged

The Journal is evidently in low spirits and sadly discouraged in its attempt to bamboozle the people with statements and influences that it has been forced to admit were unfounded, and with positions that were to say the least absurd It says:

It is useless to bandy words—the people understand the question. To them the decision must be left, and the day, thank God, is past when newspapers and demagogues could lead them by the nose

Fine words, indeed, from a man whose whole aim has been to misrepresent the facts in regard to the "draft" and the "direct tax," and who now, that he is forced to own up the falsity of his inference, devoutly thanks God that the people are not to be led be the nose The discovery must be recent on his part or he had never put forth the statement, so easily refuted "Sweet are the uses of adversity" and if the rejection of the Jouanal's stuff and its consequent discouragement has no other effect than to teach its editor the lesson he has been slow to learn, that he people are not to be fooled by false statements and illogical inferences, we think he will have abundant room for thankfulness, even if it be grievable to bear. As to our begging the question &c, we leave that to the the judgment of our readers and those of the Journal. If denying its premises &c., showing their utter falsity and the consequent falsity of its conclusions, if showing by reference to the law and the facts that its statements and reasons for offering a State government were utterly without foundation and thoroughly false, are to be considered as "begging," then have we begged the question, otherwise not. For our part we propose to discuss the question of the adoption or rejection of the Constitution now being formed, fairly, candidly and to the best of our ability, not because we think ourselves more capable of judging of its merits or demerits than others, but because by an interchange of opinions which, discussion always call forth truth is most likely to be solved and the prosperity of the people promoted. Dare the Journal do as much, or will it content itself with "jogging the memories" of its readers and perhaps reiterating statements, that no one knows better than its editor, are false—in fact foreign to the subject?

Currency.

The Reese River Reveille says that several superintendents of mines in that vicinity have come to an agreement with their workmen to pay in greenbacks, raising the rates of wages to make up the difference between the legal tenders and gold currency. A company in Humboldt have adopted in their by-laws a provision that stockholders may pay their assessments in greenbacks The tendency on the Pacific slope is certainly to adopt the national currency as a circulating medium To do any other way would be drifting against the tide. The law makes this currency a legal tender for indebtedness and such a law connot be easily resisted. So long as so great a demand for coin exists, even estates which produce gold and silver will be to a great extent, drained of it and will suffer from a scarcity of a circulating medium, unless paper currency takes its place.

A combination of business men was formed at Virginia city for the purpose of excluding paper currency from circulation. While it may be temporarily successful it must in the end fail. A large amount of the mining stock of California and Nevada are owned by New York capitalists who will insist on their right to pay their assessments in this way. Thus the wedge will enter which is to burst asunder all such unnatural combinations. The result will benefit the whole nation by throwing the coin circulation of these Pacific States and Territories upon the money market.

Ventilating Mines.

An exchange says that a simple mode for ventilating mines is adopted at the Hampton Mine, near Louisville, Northampton, England. A wooden box has been put in, six inches by three, open at each, and running one thousand feet. the whole length of the adit. An air-tight door is placed across the outer end. The air passes to the working end, and following back, through the adit, goes up an air shaft 300 feet from the outer end; a wooden chimney 30 feet high, placed over the shaft, surrounded by a patent ventilator, assists the current of air.—The draft through the box pipe is so strong that it will blow out a lighted candle placed at the end. By this simple contrivance a constant and ample supply of fresh air is supplied to the miners without any expense for working.

This process of ventilation has been employed here to a limited extent for some time past. Mr. Frasier, an English miner, who lives in Quartz valley, we believe informed us with good success. The same [illegible] be accomplished in a shaft or set of shafts by putting in two wooden air-tight pipes, one of which shall be be thirty feet higher than the other; even a less difference might accomplish the desired end A tube of this sort a foot in diameter would answer the purpose, and would furnish a cheap method of ventilation

Another method of ventilating is to put down a single tube, the upper end of which shall be constructed of sheet iron, and pass through a furnace, which may be equally simple in its construction, the heat around the tube will rarify the air in the upper end of it and cause it to rise, and in this way the cold air will be drawn up from below to fill its place, thus causing a draft, and consequent ventilation Either of these methods is less expensive than forcing air down with a fan.

Constitutional Convention.

The Constitutional Convention met at Golden City at 5 o'clock P. M on the 4th, and appointed Hon E. H. Holland, President, pro tem, and W N. Byers, Secretary, pro tem, after which a committee on credentials were appointed who reported at the session in the evening, the names of the following persons as entitled to seats in the convention.

R. Sopris	L M. Sprague
T. C Bergen.	L. G. Tubbs
E. F Holland	A D. Cooper
D P. Wilson	F. Meyer
J H Gest	G. L Shoup
W. P. Pollock	Wm Craig
H A. Cummings	C Dominguez
G. W. Jacobs	H E Esterday
Juan B. Jacques	Frank Jennings
H. M Teller	Robert Douglass
O A. Whittemore	U B Holloway
Robert Stubbs	A G. Langford
Geo T. Clark	C M. Tyler
Robert Culver	C. Witherow
W B Osborn	A Guibor
James Castillo	P. Whinney
Jno. McPherson	A. Wright
C. North	James Luttrell
W B. Felton	W N Byers

Jose M Jacques

After calling the roll a quorum being present the convention proceeded to elect a permanent president

O. A. Whittemore was elected on the first ballot

Mr. Byers then introduced a bill for "An Ordinance adopting the Constitution of the United States, and accepting certain conditions of the Enabling Act, which was read, and,

On motion of Mr. Sopris, it was unanimously adopted.

The Ordinance was as follows.

AN ORDINANCE, ADOPTING THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AND ACCEPTING CERTAIN CONDITIONS IN THE ENABLING ACT

WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States, in Act approved March 21st, 1864, and entitled, "An Act to enable the people of Colorado to form a Constitution and State Government, and for the admission of such State into the Union on an equal footing with the original States," which said Act provided for the election of Delegates to a Convention to frame a Constitution, and required them when so assembled and organized, to "declare, on behalf of the people of said Territory, that they adopt the Constitution of the United States"—

"And provided further, That said Convention shall provide by Ordinance, irrevocable without the consent of the United States, and the people of said State"—

"First, That there shall be neither slavery nor involuntary servitude in the said State, otherwise than for the punishment of crimes whereof the party shall have been duly convicted.

"Second, That perfect toleration of religious sentiment, shall be secured, and no inhabitant of said State shall ever be molested in person or property on account of his or her mode of religious worship.

"Third, That the people inhabiting said Territory do agree and declare, that they forever disclaim all right and title to the unappropriated public lands lying within said Territory, and that the same shall be and remain at the sole and entire disposition of the United Sates; and that lands belonging to citizens of the United States, residing without the said State shall never be taxed higher than the land belonging to the residents thereof; and that no taxes shall be imposed by said State on lands or property therein, belonging to, or which may hereafter be purchased by the United States:"

Now, therefore, this Convention, duly elected by the people of Colorado, under and in accordance with the provisions of said act of Congress, being duly organized, do hereby, on behalf of, and by the authority of the people of said Territory of Colorado, adopt the Constitution of the United States, and accept all of the foregoing propositions

Furthermore, We do declare by the authority of, and in behalf of the people of the Territory of Colorado, and ordain by this ordinance irrevocable, except upon the above conditions; that there shall be neither slavery nor involuntary servitude in the State of Colorado, otherwise than in the punishment of crimes, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted: That perfect toleration of religious sentiment shall be secured, and no inhabitant of said State shall ever be molested in person or property on account of his or her mode of religious worship; and that the people inhabiting said Territory of Colorado do agree and declare that they forever disclaim all right and title to the unappropriated lands lying within said Territory, and that the same shall be, and remain at the sole and entire disposal of the United States; and that lands belonging to citizens of the United States residing without the said State, shall never be taxed higher than the lands belonging to residents thereof; and that no taxes shall be imposed by said states on lands or property therein belonging to, or which may hereafter be purchased by the United States —

By unanimous order of the Convention, at Golden City, July 4th, 1864.

O. A. WITTEMORE,
President.

WILLIAM N. BYERS,
Secretary pro tem.

The convention then adjourned to meet yesterday at Denver and probably did meet in the Progressive Hall which was tendered them.

The ordinance above is nothing more nor less than what is required by the organic act.

The convention met again on the 5th and completed its organization by electing E. M. Ashley, Secretary, Chas. Brown, Sergeant at Arms, and Master Mosier, Page.

Mr. Byers offered the following resolutions and moved their adoption.

Resolved, That the Constitution shall consist of the following Articles:

Philadelphia, July 5th

A special to the Harrisburg Bulletin of to day says the rebels hadn't crossed the Potomac at 4 o'clock this morning The people of the border counties are somewhat affraid, and there is considerable alarm still existing.

Over 1,600 horses passed through Gettysburg yesterday, for a military force to repel the expected invasion

Baltimore, July 5th

Reports of rebel movements are still contradictory. The latest information is as follows

The rebel force that visited the Point of Rocks yesterday didn't exceed 100, supposed to be under Mosby They returned after committing all their roberies

The excitement at Frederick has in a great measure abated, but is believed that the Provost guard of that place will be sent to protect the city from all the rebels who have entered the State, and those in the vicinity of the Point of Rocks

Sigel and Mulligan's forces reached Maryland Heights last night. There is no doubt of their not being able to successfully resist any attack of the rebels on that place.—Other reinforcements are on the way to the Heights.

The Gen. commanding Harper's Ferry has given notice to the people to leave, as he intends opening his guns on the town to drive the rebels out The rebels are all in the Virginia side of town, engaged in destroying every species of property. They occasionally throw a shell over this side —The pontoons which crossed the river have been carefully removed, and the span railroad bridge has been destroyed to prevent the rebels from crossing.

A despatch from Cumberland to-day says the rebel raid has been very destructive at Chesapeake and Ohio canal. A number of boats were burned and several teams captured.

Washington, July 5th.

The President has called upon Pennsylvania for 17,500 troops to serve for 100 days unless sooner discharged.

Mr. Fessenden entered upon the duties of his office, and attended upon the Cabinet meeting to-day.

New York, July 5th.

Late private advices from Port Hudson state that the rebels are very active in that quarter.

An annual meeting of the associates or corporators shall, in like manner and upon like notice, be held on the first Monday of May, in each year after eighteen hundred and sixty-five, for the election of managers for the ensuing year, but if, in any case, the said meeting shall, for any reason, fail to be held on the day herein designated, the same may, upon the notice above provided, be held on any other day within three months thereafter, and the managers then elected shall hold their offices until the first Monday of May next ensuing, and until their successors shall be chosen, as aforesaid The said board of managers shall have power to fill any vacancies occurring therein between the regular elections above provided in this act, and a majority of said board shall form a quorum for the transaction of business

Sec 4. And be it further enacted, That the board of managers shall have power to appoint such agents, matrons, assistants, and teachers, and to employ such domestics and servants, as shall be deemed necessary, and to make all needful and proper regulations for their respective, general, or specific duties, as well as for the government, direction, and control of all persons who may at any time become inmates of the "Home" authorized by this act, and may prescribe for the children and youth committed to their care such such rules of discipline as shall be deemed by them necessary.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That whenever any child who, from the neglect or inability of its parents or guardian to support it, shall become a charge upon public charity, and shall be surrendered to the charge of the association, pursuant to the provisions of this act, by such parent or by its guardian, or by the overseer or superintendent of the poor of said city of Washington, or other officer having the charge of the poor, or whenever any destitute and dependent orphan shall be surrendered to such institution, in the manner herein provided, by an instrument in writing, duly signed by such parent, guardian, or public officer, the said board of managers may, in their discretion, place such child to service with some proper person under articles of indenture, to be executed in due form of law, with such provisions for maintenance and education of shall be approved by one of the judges of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia; and the said board of managers are hereby authorized to permit the adoption of any such child by any respectable and proper person who, under provisions to be approved as aforesaid, shall undertake the maintenance, care, and proper education of such destitute or orphan child.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That in case of the death or legal incapacity of the father of any dependent child, or of the imprisonment of such father for crime, or of his abandoning or neglecting to provide for his family, the mother, if residing in the District of Columbia, shall be deemed the legal guardian of her children for the purposes of this act, and shall have power to make the surrender aforesaid. But in case the mother also be dead, or a non-resident of said District, or legally incapable of acting in the premises, or be imprisoned for crime, or neglect to provide for such child, and in case there be no guardian or other person legally bound to support such child, or qualified to make the surrender aforesaid, then, and in any such case, the the superintendent of the poor, or the Mayor of Washington, or other public officer having charge of the poor, shall, for the purposes of this act, be required, as ex-officio guardian of such child, and may make, as such, the surrender of such child to the said corporation by the instrument in writing aforesaid, which surrender shall, in all respects, be as valid and effectual as if made by the father or parent of such child: Provided, That no surrender of any such child shall be made under the provisions of this section, unless such surrender shall, on examination, be approved by one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of said District.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That the board of managers may elect from their own number a president, vice president, and secretary; and they may further elect a treasurer. They may, in their discretion, appoint an executive committee, consisting of five members of their board, who may, under the general direction of the board, take charge of the affairs of the corporation during any recess of the board.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer of said corporation shall at any time upon the call of Congress report a full and perfect statement of the affairs of such corporation, the location, value, and income of all real estate owned by it, the amount of its receipts, expenditures, investments and personal estate, and all other information which Congress may require.

Sec. 9 And be it further enacted, That Congress may at any time alter, amend, or repeal this act.

Sec 10 And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

[PUBLIC—No 108]

AN ACT to regulate the veto power in the Territory of Washington.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That every bill which shall have passed the Legislative Assembly of Washington Territory shall, before it become a law, be presented to the Governor. If he approve he shall sign it, but if not he shall return it, with his objections, to that House in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the objections at large on their journal and proceed to consider it. If after such reconsideration two-thirds of that House shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other House, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two-thirds of that House it shall become a law But in all such cases the votes of both Houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the bill shall be entered on the journal of each House respectively If any bill shall not be returned by the Governor within five days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law, in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Legislative Assembly by their adjournment prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law

Approved, June 17, 1864.

[PUBLIC—No 109]

AN ACT to empower the Superannuated Fund Society of the Maryland Annual Conference to hold property in the District of Columbia and to take a devise under the will of the late William Doughty

Whereas a certain William Doughty, of Georgetown, in the District of Columbia, by his last will, bearing date on the twenty-ninth day of April, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, duly admitted to probate, devised and bequeathed certain real and personal property and estate—part thereof to take effect at his death, and the residue at the death or marriage of his widow—to a society incorporated by act of the General Assembly of Maryland, by the name of "The Superannuated Fund Society of the Maryland Annual Conference," and called in said will the Superannuated Fund Society of the Methodist Protestant Church for the District of Maryland, and whereas it has been questioned whether the said corporation can lawfully take and hold the said property, in virtue of said last will, without the leave and assent of Congress Therefore—

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the assent of Congress is hereby given to all and every the aforementioned devises and bequests unto "The Superannuated Fund Society of the Maryland Annual Conference" aforesaid; and the said society and body corporate is hereby fully authorized and empowered to take and hold the said property and estate devised and bequeathed to it as aforesaid, agreeably to the tenor and provisions of the said last will, and to dispose of and enjoy the same to every intent and effect as if the said society had been originally incorporated by act of Congress

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said corporation is hereby empowered to hold real and personal property located in the District of Columbia acquired or that shall be acquired by gift, purchase, devise, or bequest, and the same enjoy, rent, lease, or convey, at pleasure, as freely as any person or body corporate can do: Provided, That the net yearly income thereof shall not exceed twenty thousand dollars.

Sec 3. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the day of its passage.

Approved, June 17, 1864.

☞ Blanks of every description are printed neatly and quickly, at the Register Office, and as cheaply as at any other printing establishment in the Territory Correct forms of the following blanks are kept constantly on hand and for sale: Warranty Deeds, Trust Deeds, Quitclaim Deeds, Real Estate Mortgages, Chattel Mortgage, Pre-emption Blanks, Territorial Warrants, Summons, Subpœnas, Attachment Bonds, Writs, and Affidavits, Replevin Bonds, Writs and Affidavits Appeal Bonds, and Vouchers

Gold Chains made to order from native gold, gold 16, 18 karats fine, of the most beautiful workmanship Call in and examine patterns at Howard & Colony's, Main street, Central City June 17-tf

—The person who took an engineer's leveling rod from the REGISTER office, will please return it immediately Information of its whereabouts will be liberally rewarded.

—Charles M Ferrell, Esq is in Central on a general mountain tour for the benefit of the News He is authorized to receive and receipt for subscriptions, advertisements, &c., for that paper

—The coaches are arriving with regularity and promptness at this time, and each day bear more or less passengers,—always less than in the days of reasonable charges, however.

—Edward Basso and his associated partner, Mr. Rudolph, are daily receiving large installments of American and other watches, made especially for mountain men, with heavy cases and works complete Call around —Yesterday was perhaps the hottest day of the year, in this region Everyone seemed to wilt under the scorching effects of the sun, and many evinced a determination to drown their sorrows in copious draughts of lager beer. The thermometer, at its highest point stood 82° in the shade.

—The Halfway House is flourishing under the patronage of the generous resident public, at Mountain city. Ice cream, cakes and lager beer are among the commodities to be enjoyed there Mr. Charley Koch is the genteel proprietor of the house, we believe.

—Louis & North have still a host of goods left, and both gentlemen stand ready to attend to the modest wants of the mountain community We will grant the assertion that their store is always full of customers, but what matters it while they attend to all with as much despatch and politeness as if there were but a single customer at hand?

—Mrs. Sinclair and Mrs. Curtis have opened a millinery establishment, a short distance below James E Lyon & Co.'s place on Lawrence street, at which they are offering for sale the neatest goods ever offered in their line, in the mountains. They are ladies of excellent taste, and those who patronize them may be sure of getting something nice. The ladies say their style of getting up hats is perfectly delightful 8

—A curious fact has just come to our ears from Mr. Block, the proprietor of the Central markets. He states that on yesterday when one of his men had finished butchering a good sized calf, and while he was dressing the same, he discovered in the stomach two large balls of hair, each perfectly compact and solid, one of which was two and a half and the other three inches in dimension. The calf had been in a perfect state of health and finely fatted

The performances at the Montana since the fourth have been postponed on account of the grand preparation for the play of the "Avalanch, or under the snow, which has been in rehearsal since that time Last night it was produced, and cheer after cheer from an overcrowded house testified to its success. It is certainly one of the finest of modern dramas, and bears a world of interest in every line of its beautiful language.

—Central was made glad last night by the sudden arrival of the veritable "yaller dorg" whose name and fame have been emblazoned by the eloquence of Goldrick in every issue of the Denver paper, until we almost thought the dorg a thing angelical. It's a good dorg, we think, from x remark we heard its owner make It was accompanied by Charley Ferrell, the tutcuss of the literary corps in Colorado. Charley comes to display his winning ways in quest of subscribers for the News. May he succeed.

—The Union Sunday School Convention, which is to meet at Black Hawk the ensuing Tuesday, promises to be a very great success We will perhaps publish some of the the particulars of the proposed programme before the opening of the convention. It will last two days, and on the morning of the third a grand pic-nic will be given to the schools at Westover's ranch in Quartz Valley. We are informed Gov. Evans will be present and will deliver an address before the convention some time during the session.

Day before yesterday some three hundred rebel wounded fell into our hands Of these, twenty-one required capital operations — They were placed in a row, a slip of paper pinned to each man's coat collar, telling the nature of the operation that had been decided upon. Dr. Morton first passed along, and with a towel saturated with ether, puts every man beyond consciousness of pain

The operating surgeon follows and rapidly and skillfully amputates a leg or an arm, as the case may be, till the twenty-one have been subjected to the knife and saw without one twinge of pain. A second surgeon ties up the arteries; a third dresses the wounds The men are taken to tents near by and wake up and find themselves cut in two without torture, while a winrow of lopped off members attest the work. The last man has been operated upon before the first awakens, nothing could be more dramatic and nothing could more perfectly demonstrate the value of anæsthetics. Besides, men fight better when they know that torture does not follow a wound, and numberless lives are saved that the knife would lose to their friends and the country

THE NEW ARCHBISHOP.—Bishop McCloskey, of Albany, received his commission as Archbishop of New York last week, and will soon take up his residence in this city. One of the Albany papers speaks of the successor of Archbishop Hughes in the following terms:

Few clergymen in the State are more respected. Bishop McCloskey is a gentleman of talent and eloquence He is the very opposite of Bishop Hughes in temperament The latter was a great controversalists, and was never better pleased than when engaged in a war of logic with the editor of the N. Y. Express, or some other equally pugnacious person. Bishop McCloskey has no taste for this sort of thing His greatest desire is to live on good terms with his neighbors, and to indulge in acrimony and ill-feeling as seldom as possible Archbishop Hughes would rather fight for the success of his creed than pray for it Bishop McCloskey on these points differs radically with his predecessor, and we think with great gain to himself as well as advantage to his church. Bishop McCloskey, in going to New York, will take with him the best wishes of our citizens for a long and happy life.

REBEL TRIBUTE TO NORTHERN COPPERHEADS.—The Atlanta (Georgia) Appeal in an article on the prospect of peace, gives credit to the Northern supporters of rebellion, as follows

Whilst we may look with some degree of confidence to the people of the North, driven to despair by the memory of their countless dead, and the bankruptcy and utter ruin which now stare them in the face, to dethrone the tyrant and put a stop to the further progress of the war, we must not stay nor lessen our own efforts to bring about that consummation so devoutly to be wished. Every successful blow we strike is so much bone and muscle to the arm which, under the training of Long, Harris, Voorhees and Vallandigham, is preparing to strike at the North

AN INCIDENT OF THE COLD HARBOR BATTLE —Sometimes the sadness which generally prevails among the wounded and dying is banished by a ludicrous incident. An Irishman who had been fatally wounded was advised by the surgeon to give his effects to a person near by He pulled out his razor, and asked, comically, "If he would send that home to the ould woman" "Yes," said the delegate Next came out his glasses and then $17,65, of which one dollar was silver. All these things he wanted sent But when the delegate went to take them, he asked him to "Wait a bit.—These doctors are not always right. Yese betther be afther seeing whether I'm going to die or not."

HOFFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D D, Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others

I do this more readily in regard to Hoffland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr C M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost dispaired of regaining I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them

Philapelphia, June 23 1861 J NEWTON BROWN

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart Bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed

This class of bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Spirits of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death Beware of them

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt Get One bottle Hofland's German Bitters, and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less You will have all the virtues of, HOFLAND'S BITTERS in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS
AND FRINDS OF SOLDIERS,

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army, to the fact that "Hoofland's German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the illness induced by exposures and privations incident to campaign In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be seen that a very large proportion are suffering from debility Every case of this kind can be speedily cured by Hoofland ster man Bitters Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed We have no hesitation in stating that if these bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved, that otherwise will be lost

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters"

PHILADELPHIA, August 22d, 1863.

Messrs Jones & Evans —Well, genelemen, your Hoofflands German Bitters have saved my life There is no mistake about it. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of who e names have been appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of the case. I am, and have been, for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated Battery, and and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as my one could be, and retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more, I was scarcely able to swallow anything; but if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomache. Life could not last under such circumstances: and accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Fredereick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commence taking them them the gloomy shadow of death receded, an I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being able to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months, for gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to yours Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again ll uping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone restored to health

EUREKA FOUNDERY

AND

Eureka Gulch, ... Central City.

HENDRIE & BUTLER, Proprietors.

MINERS, MILL OWNERS, and the Public generally are hereby respectfully informed that this establishment is now fully supplied with material of all kinds required for mountain work, and prepared to fill all orders for

CAST OR WROUGHT IRON WORK.

Their trains from the Missouri river keep them constantly supplied with

IRON AND COKE, of the Best Quality.

When from low water or frontier disturbances, it is found impracticable or unsafe to rely upon the Missouri river for transportation, they have trains constantly freighting across Iowa, from the terminus of the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad to Council Bluffs and Plattsmouth, whence shipments are made to this point by their own trains These arrangements insure a

Full Supply, at All Seasons, Without Fail

During the past summer, they have much more than DOUBLED the capacity of their establishment, having erected a

NEW MACHINE SHOP

twenty four by fifty feet, two stories high, into which they are preparing to place a new

Steam Engine, of Twenty-Five Horse Power.

They have also recently obtained a new and greatly improved

IRON PLANING MACHINE,

with which they will be enabled to make or repair machinery with an accuracy heretofore unattained, and with great rapidity.

In addition to this, they havey have also added to their machinery new

Drill Presses, Screw Cutters, Lathes, &c

All of the very latest and most approved patents—such as are in use in the best Machine-Shops in the Eastern cities With their new machinery in full operation, they will be enabled to execute all work in their line in a manner

UNEQUALLED

By any establishment west of St. Louis, Mo

They have also greatly enlarged the capacity of the FOUNDERY, so that they are now prepared to make THE LARGEST CASTINGS required for Quartz Mills or any kind of machinery in use in this Territory.

Particular attention will be given to the manufacture of

FREIBURG PANS.

They are prepared to cast any number of these pans on short notice, of the best material, and in the most satisfactory manner All persons desiring these pans are invited to call and examine their work, material, and prices, before ordering elsewhere

Such are their present facilities, that any description of

QUARTZ MILL OR STEAM ENGINE

required in this country can be manufactured and delivered in any part of the Territory

WITHIN SIXTY DAYS

from the time the order for the same is received here

The senior member of the firm is proprietor of two other extensive founderies and machine shops—one at Council Bluffs, and the other at Burlington, Iowa. This establishment, therefore, has facilities for supplying the wants of this Territory possessed by no other in the country, as any article which it is inconvenient to manufacture here can be immediately forwarded by their trains from the other founderies.

Mr BUTLER, whose personal attention is given to the business at this point, has made it his constant study for three years past to ascertain and supply the wants of Miners and Mill Owners in this None but THE BEST WORKMEN are employed, and the strictest attention is given to every department.

MILL STAMPS AND SHOES

Always on hand, and warranted of the best material

The shoes for Quartz Mill Stamps manufactured at Council Bluffs are confessedly the best and most durable in use in the mountains They are made of superior iron, and chilled by a new process. A full supply will be kept constantly on hand.

Particular attention is given to the Building of

STEAM ENGINES

For Hoisting Ore and Water from Shafts

Several of these engines are now in use here, and others are in process of construction.

REPAIRING.

Machinery of all kinds repaired on short notice, in a workmanlike manner, and on reasonable terms

ONE HUNDRED TONS FREIGHT

Now on the road between the Mississippi River and this point, including

FIVE STEAM ENGINES,

MILL STAMPS AND SHOES,

CASTINGS OF VARIOUS KINDS,

AND WROUGHT IRON WORK

Of every description. Arrangements have been perfected by which they will hereafter be kept constantly supplied.

Thankful for the generous patronage heretofore bestowed, the proprietors are determined, by fair dealing, excellence of work, and strict attention to business, to merit a continuance of public favor.

For Excellence of Work and Reasonable Prices

WE DEFY COMPETITION.

WHEELER'S

Amalgamating & Separating Pans.

It is acknowledged by all who have examined the principles and witnessed the operation of these pans that they are decidedly superior for triturating and amalgamating purposes to any other in use. The most important principle connected with these Pans, is the separation of

THE TRITURATING PROCESS

From that Extracting the Amalgum From the Sand

The chief cause of the loss of the precious metal arises from the op... of the same in combination with the ... the process of triturating and in cleaning up By the introduction of the SEPARATING PAN to follow the triturating, this loss is entirely avoided. In working these machines there is appreciable, and hence none of the precious metals Where these pans have been introduced and operated by the side of others on sands from the same vat,

NO LOSS OF QUICKSILVER,

THE WHEELER PANS

Have uniformly gained a large percentage of metal, over their competitors, as well as a still larger percentage in the amount of work performed

OUR TICKET.

ANDREW JOHNSON,

The Constitutional Convention

The most important body of men ever met in Colorado is now in session at Denver. We are pleased to learn from the News that the character of the delegates is such as to warrant us in the belief that their action will be such as will conduce to the permanent prosperity of the Territory, or as it will doubtless soon be, the State. We shall watch with interest the proceedings of the Convention and hope to be able to welcome the result of its labors as one calculated to promote our prosperity and adapted to our situation and wants. Let the great principles of our Government be distinctly affirmed and the rights of property and personal liberty be carefully secured, let the doors of legislation be closely shut against local invidiom and stock jobbing enactment, and above all, give us an economical, but independent State Government and there need be no fears of its rejection by the people. Timid ones may fear an increase of taxes, and disloyal ones may fear an increase of the loyal element in Congress and wish to deprive Lincoln and Johnson of the votes of Colorado, but it will avail nothing The loyal men will see that with the capital stock now in the Territory taxed as it would be, with influx of capital which must follow a fixed and permanent organization, and consequent freedom from the hateful invidious Legislation under which we now groad, would more than make up any increase in taxes likely to follow from the adoption of a State organization while the disloyal Copperhead style of men will find it "hard to kick against the pricks" and themselves too few in number to resist the increasing, and as soon will be, overwhelming sentiment, in favor of a State Government

The Convention as will be seen in another column is now fairly under way and with the history and constitutions of so many of our sister states before it, it would seem it need not be engaged a great while. Changes adapted to our situation and suggested by the history and experience of others will be required and will no doubt be carefully attended to We shall from time to time lay before our readers as full a report of its doing as possible, as well as the completed result of its labors and bespeak for both that careful attention which belongs to a subject of so much importance

The Mines.

Every day brings new developments in mining matters. We are constantly hearing of extensive and rich discoveries. From no quarter are the reports better in this respect than from Clear Creek, Summit, Lake and Park counties. The lodes of that region are well defined, have wide crevices and prospect well. Hundreds of new ones are being discovered and occupied.

We have seen rich specimens of argentiferous lead ore from Summit and Park counties, which have been recently brought from that quarter.

Hitherto, little else than gulch mining has been done, but of late attention has been turned to the lodes, and they have been found to surpass in value the most sanguine expectations of those who have prospected there. The ores contain a very large amount of copper, and properly should be regarded as copper ores.

The immense amount of water power everywhere convenient in that region will greatly assist in its development. We have fine specimens of Molybdenum presented to us by Hon. J. T. Lynch, which he found there. Lodes have also been found containing a sufficient amount of quicksilver to amalgamate the gold contained in the ores. Nearer home discoveries are also being made daily, which promise bright things for the future, buf what we have most to expect from is the introduction of the requisite machinery. An immense amount of it is on the road, and some had already arrived. Mr. Coleman is preparing to erect a steam pump on his Gunnell property. He has made arrangements which give him ample capital to work economically and successfully, and with his experience cannot fail to make his property pay largely.—The dry weather has brought increased activity, and will give good results.

Siege of Richmond.

After alluding to the comments upon this subject in the Northern press the leading article in the Examiner concludes as follows:

The citizens, if we may judge by their quiet indifference, did not believe one word of it. "They begin to doubt even the existence of Grant's army." Let Grant prove it. Here is Richmond waiting to be taken; built evidently to be taken; predestined to be taken, robbed and burned, according to very high authorities. And it is clear, also that the whole heart of a great and mighty nation, of all the mighty nations the mightest, and the best, has been set upon this achievement, as its highest business, and holiest mission upon earth. And there are not wanting eager, eloquent, voluble writers for the public press, of that same people, most enlightened press of all creation, protesting, affirming and almost swearing, that large and numerous bodies of persons in uniform, wearing buttons, carrying weapons, in fact, what Yankees call armies, were most certainly coming this way on the errand aforesaid; and that Richmond was to consider herself besieged, or, for that matter, as good as taken. There is a very general incredulity about this whole matter.—Perhaps it is because we are now so used to Yankee lying as to set down anything false because they say it, or perhaps it is that our citizens have heretofore read in books about besieged cities, and had the impression that in such cases people could not go in or out; meat or vegetables could not come to market from the country, and, no matter how tempting the summer weather, family parties could not make picnics to the rural districts. And finding none of these conditions in the present situation, they say that there is no siege They surmise that the whole story of these vast hosts, and this investment of a city, and bloody arbitrament of the great world conflict of the age, must have been got up, in order to amuse or delude a convention now said to be assembled at Baltimore "And they begin generously to doubt whether it be indeed true, or was true a few days ago, thatsome of the largest armies ever embattled upon earth were advancing with a celerity never before known, to decide the destinies of a continent in our streets," and seal the grand charter of her man freedom in flame and blood, amidst the conflagration of our crashing dwellings and the murderous shrieks of a hundred thousand souls They say, "Booh." Say there has been no such battle in hand at all Let Grant prove it If he has any army, let him produce it, let him prove his own existence to begin with Richmond is open to correction, and is tired of waiting to be taken It is rather a drowsy affair, this life in a besieged city. Richmond is in danger of falling asleep upon her seven hills in this still and sultry atmosphere. We can conceive of a certain lazy somnolence which seems to be crushing out our people.—Richmond Examiner June 9.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Reported expressly for the Miner's Register, at Central City, per Pacific Telegraph Line

Washington 5th.—The President informed Gov. Seymour that a rebel force, estimated at 20,000 strong, had invaded Maryland and attacked Martinsburg and Harper's Ferry and threatening other points, that public safety requires a call upon the militia to repel invasion, and calls upon the State of New York for 12,000 militia as its quota to serve 100 days.

Baltimore 5th—Reports in regard to rebel movements still contradictory The telegraph operator at Hogleston, yesterday, says no rebels nearer than Falling Waters and Williamsport, where it is said fighting was going on yesterday p m,—same report says, also at or near Sharpsburg — Other reports say Segel has been joined by Mulligan's force from Leetown, where a fight occurred on Sunday. Nothing has been heard from Segel or Mulligan up to Tuesday p m, which accounted for the firing at Hagerstown, four hundred of their troops being engaged opposite Sheppardstown, to which point they must have been followed by the rebels. All the sick and wounded at Fredrick have been moved to Annapolis, and Government stores have also been moved—no reason has been given for this movement from Fredrick as no hostile force has been seen except a small cavalry detachment near Point of Rocks. Hunter is said to be moving his whole force to thwart the designs of the rebels in their expedition.

Chicago 6th —A mistake was made in thedispatch stating that Gen Hooker was wounded in the engagement at Kenesaw — Gen Harker was wounded and since died The error occurred by similarity of the names

Halifax 6th, and Queenstown 26th—The Yacht Deer Hound is charged with being a tender to the Alabama. It is reported that Semmes will sail with another pirate steamer in August

Conference met Saturday and adjourned It is stated that orders have been issued by the English Government to have 40,000 troops ready equipped

Peace rumors yesterday caused an improvement in stock and consuls

New York 6th—The World's special says intelligence from the upper Potomac is confused and vague.

Citizens of upper Maryland are greatly frightened, fleeing with their property in all directions. Danger thus far seems to be more apprehended than real, for the rebel commands have not occupied any town on the Maryland side of the Potomac The enemy is supposed to be part of Ransom's (late Steward's) cavalry, with infantry, from Ewel's corps.

The Washington special of the Tribune, last night, says refugees from Hagerstown Boonsboro and Middletown are arriving in Baltimore in considerable numbers—many of them walked the whole way. They report citizens throughout the western counties leaving, more on account of previous invasions than from anything seriously threatened now.

Baltimore 6th —The mail train from Sandy Hook, opposite Harper's Ferry, left as usual this morning Hunter's forces are rapidly arriveng from the west and will doubtless soon confront the rebels who retain possession of the Virginia side of Harper's Ferry. Segel holds the opposite heights. All indications show the enemy's force does not exceed 8000 men, and that it is a plundering expedition

New York 6th—The Times' Correspondent, in London, says, notwithstanding the reports some time since, that the Alabama was so worn out thot she would have to be abandoned and would never go on the ocean again, she made a trip from the East to Cherbourg in such short time that it was thought to be the Florida, and was so telegraphed on her arrival. Capt. Winslow with the Kersage, then in Holland, was immediately sent for by authority of Mr. Dayton. The French authorities were obliged to order the Alabama out of the Port. Semmes put the best face on the matter, though he did'nt like to face the war ship.

The fight was short and decisive, but one would have thought the Alabama would have gladly changed places for a merchanman. When the Alabama was disabled in her machinery the Kersage run up close to her and poured a destructive broadside into her which tore away a whole section of the Alabama's side and let the water through in perfect cascades The Alabama then turned tail and made for the shore. Commander Winslow hoisted a flag of victory and pursued, finding the Alabama sinking he lowered his small boats to pick up the crew.

Mr. Dayton says the prisoners cannot be paroled, but would be transferred to the St. Louis when she arrived and conveyed to the United States.

Commander Winslow claims Captain Semmes and others taken off prisoners He had ample means to pick them up but the English yacht actually stole them, thus constituting a clear case of of intervention

The Tribune's special says that Commander Winslow, of the Kersage, hes been recommended by the Secretary of the Navy to be promoted to a Commodore. It is said here that the value of the Alabama will be distributed among the officers and men of the Kersage by the next Congress.

Washington, 5th

The President has issued a proclamation suspending the writ of habeas corpus in Kentucky.

Chicago, 6th

Josiah Quincy died to-day at his residence at Brainbridge, Mass

Baltimore, 6th

A gentleman just arrived this morning from Harper's Ferry says that it is ascertained that the whole enemy's force does not exceed 5,000, of these less than a fourth is cavalry. They are concentrating around Harper's Ferry and sending out parties to forage on the people, robbing them of money watches, &c Skirmishing is going on across the river Occasionally a shot or shell is thrown at them from Maryland Heights

The fight of Mulligan is spoken of as a most gallant affair He successfully repulsed them several times Sigel moved from Sheppardstown with his immense wagon train in front, the protection of which has been more important than a general engagement Not a wagon fell into the hands of the enemy. All they captured was few oats

Impression prevalent when the informant left, that the rebel force will retire before to-morrow, as Hunter will be on their rear with ample force to overwhelm them if they remain longer The principle object of this raid has proved unsuccessful, except the damage they have done to the canal and breaking the railroad and damage to the inhabitants. They have not attempted to leave the line of the Potomac except at Point of Rocks, where they destroyed a number of canal boats

There is no truth in the reports that a rebel force has been to Boonsboro and Hagerstown, or that the raid has been made west of Cumberland

Washington, 5th

The mail steamer Cushman, from City Point, brings no news of importance

It is ascertained from the army that the reports of Nelson's loss were much exaggerated. Four of his guns were retaken from the enemy

Philadelphia, 6th.

Gen Couch has received a dispatch which leads to the belief that our cavalry have been driven out of Hagerstown Our troops are concentrating at Chambersburg.

The Governor will issue a call for 12,000 troops, so that the old regiments may be sent to the front

Baltimore, 6th, 9 p m.

The following is the latest from the Upper Potomac.

Some excitement was caused at Frederick this morning, by a slight skirmish between our pickets and a small rebel scouting party, half way between Frederick and the Point of Rocks, resulting in the rebels retiring, but nothing definite is ascertained in regard to rebel movements

Chicago, 6th

A special despatch says that Sigel evacuated Martinsburg Saturday morning, marching in a direction due east, and struck the Potomac at Shepardstown and went into Maryland, closely followed by the rebels, who overtook him on Sunday and attacked his rear guard, compelling him to halt and form in line of battle on the rebel side of the old Antietam battle ground — The fight continued sometime, when he found it necessary to retreat in "good order." He went straight to Harper's Ferry, the rebels keeping close to his heels, and reached there on the morning of the 4th.—He destroyed the Railroad bridge and trestle work leading from the bridge to the armory buildings there, and now occupies Maryland Heights, which, 'tis hoped he will defend.

At 9 o'clock yesterday morning the rebels charged up the hill and attacked him

Milwaukee, 6th.

An extensive conflagration of lumber raging in the northern counties it is reported has destroyed property to the amount of 150,000 dollars.

Washington, 6th

The navy department received the following by the U. S. steamer Kearsage on the 19th

I have the honor to inform the department that the day subsequent to the arrival of the Kearsage off Cherbourg I received a note from Capt Semmes begging that the Kearsage would not depart as he intended to fight her and would not delay her but a day or so. According to this notice the Alabama left the port of Cherbourg at half past nine. Fearing a question of jurisdiction might arise, we steamed to sea until a distance of 6 or 8 miles was obtained from Cherbourg breakwater. When we rounded to and commenced steaming for the Alabama As we approached she opened fire we receiving four broadsides before a shot was returned. The action continued, the steamers making a circle round and round at a distance of four hundred yards from each other. At the expiration of four hours the Alabama struck, going down in 20 minutes afterwards. [Signed]

CAPT. JNO. WINSLOW.

Baltimore, July 7th.

A telegram to-day says the City is full of rumors, and the following, is believed to be correct intelligence from Maryland Heights and regions beyond, warrants a belief that the rebel force is now on this side of the Potomac:

The Tribune special says official information received here, shows that Grant notified the War Department that a large portion of Hunter's force reached Parkersburg on their way east, and his advance will reach Cumberland to-morrow morning.

World's special says, notwithstanding the wild reports, it is learned that the rebels only burned one important bridge west of Harper's Ferry, at Patterson's creek. It is well understood that nothing the rebels can do by the way of Shenandoah valley can induce Grant to send any portion of his army to defend Washington.

Movements are now under way for putting a stop to rebel invasion

Harrisburg, July 6th

A dispatch from Chambersburg is received, stating that Bradley Johnson's brigade entered Hagerstown this p. m., but after a spirited resistence were compelled to fall back on the Green Castle road, with which we had telegraphic communication up to 9 o'clock to-night.

A proclamation was issued by the Governor, calling for 12,000 additional troops.

New York, July 7th.

Herald's 18th corps correspondent, July 1st, says to-day we witnessed one of the most exciting artillery duels during the war. After two hours' cannonading the rebel batteries were completely silenced and driven from their position At 3 p. m. the enemy opened again, and soon the enemy's works were employed in one continuous dust cloud. The rebel gunners were seen running to the rear for safety. After two hours every rebel battery was silenced Our batteries have been placed with great skill and care, so that at any moment they can be concentrated on any given point.—During our bombardment, many buildings have been destroyed.

Tribune correspondent says that Petersburg is now covered by over 100 of our guns, awaiting Grant's instructions to utterly annihilate it, which will be but the work of a few hours.

Fort Monroe, July 6th.

A steamer arrived this morning from Bermuda Hundreds Nothing new in the front and no battle yet

New York, July 7th.

Tribune's Washington dispatch says the occasion of the suspension of the Habeas corpus in Kentucky by proclamation, is the anticipated enforcement of the draft, and particularly the enlistment of slaves.

Baltimore, July 7th

The rebels destroyed all the railroad property at Harper's Ferry, and burned a large amount of forage.

There is no doubt but Lee has sent considerable portion of his army in this direction.

The American has the following from Frederick, Md, 7th —At 10 a m. to-day, the 8th Illinois cavalry made a reconnoissance to Middletown and Frederick, found the enemy in strong force, with cavalry, infantry and artillery After a sharp fight our forces were repulsed, and fell back on Frederick, the enemy slowly pursuing

Frederick, July 7th

The enemy is now one mile from town, on Hagerstown pike All the sick and Government stores have been removed

The following is a special the Tribune dated Monoccacy, Md., 6th

Harper's Ferry is still held by the rebels, who have sharpshooters in houses and behind fences to prevent our men from coming down from the Heights The rebels have again set fire to the bridge at Harper's Ferry destroying fifty feet of the bridge on the Virginia side

Gen Wallace who has established his headquarters for the present here, sent Col, Clendennin with a force of cavalry and two guns to "feel" the enemy, with orders to proceed as far as Boonsboro He met the enemy about a mile from Middleton and had a brisk skirmish He found enemy in superior numbers but his force toward Frederick They showed him battle, and in the meantime Wallace's reinforcements, under Col Gilpin, and Major Talbott, took a position three-fourths of mile east of Frederick and were there attacked by the rebels The battle opened about 4 p. m and continued more or less very heavy for three hours, Col Gilpin, who commanded, destroyed and drove back the enemy three times The artillery firing was continuous and the musketry firing brisk, and the object of the Federals to hold the bridge at Monoccacy, near Frederick Junction This is a very important point as reinforcements are en route and will arrive to-night for Harper's Ferry

During the night several shells were thrown into the city, no damage done Gen Wallace is confident of holding Frederick We have no estimate of killed and wounded Our cavalry is pushing forward This movement of the enemy will result only in disappointment and disaster to the rebel cause.

New York, 8th

The following is the substance of a dispatch just received from Harrisburg signed by Gen. Couch and officers

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad invading force is either in Maryland or on the march for that State with not less than 30,000 strong. They have ascertained this fact from their own informants The enemy consisting of 15,000 infantry, artillery and cavalry, chiefly the latter, left Hagerstown on the old national road en route to Fredrick city. They marched just after daylight. There is a rumor that several thousand has just arrived at South Middleton, between Green Castle and Hagerstown We don't believe it. We have trustworthy information that there are no rebels this side of Hagertown.

Washington 7th

The President in accodance with a joint resolution issued a proclamation appointing the first Thursday in August as a day of humiliation and prayer for the people of the United States and commending them to the compassion and forgiviness of the Almighty and to pray if consistent with his will, that the existing rebellion may be speedily suppressed and the supremacy of the Constitution and laws of the United States be established throughout the States, and that the insurgents may speedily return to their allegiance, that they may not be utterly destroyed, that the effusion of blood may be stopped, and that amity and fraternity be restored and re-established throughout our borders.

Baltimore 7th—11 p. m.

Reliable information London county says that there is no rebel force in that county. Some of Mosby's guerrillas are committing depredations across the river Another attempt was made to cross Tuesday, but was deterred by the appearance of our cavalry They have fallen back, but guard the roads leading to the river to prevent loyal citizens from communicating with the Maryland shore

Memphis 6th

Gen Washburne has issued the following: Whereas, Railroad trains from Memphis to Salsbury are frequently fired into by guerrillas, and as many persons along the line of the road encourage such murderous proceeding, it is ordered that forty of the most prominent secessionists be arrested and that twenty each day be placed in the the most conspicuous positions on board the train, one to be placed on each of the engines, and no train be allowed to leave Memphis without this secesh guard till this murderous practice be desisted from.

Nice Calculation.

This sharpshooting war was participated in by many ambitious soldiers, whose line of duty did not exactly call them to the front line of works that day. Men would ask permission, borrow Spencer rifles and go out to hunt rebels in couples Two men —I am sorry to say their names have escaped me—were eminently successful in ridding this neighborhood of rebel pests Their manner of doing it required a vast deal of confidence in each other and considerable cool calculation as to time and space One of them would take up a position behind a tree, select a spot where he knew a rebel sharpshooter was concealed, and cover it with his gun. His companion would step out quickly in plain view of the rebel, who would raise up and fire, only to fall back dead or wounded. The quick movements of the Yankee who exposed himself rendered the rebel's aim futile, while the Yankee's companion enjoyed the advantage of a plain view at an object at rest.—By turn about at drawing fire, these men killed no less than half a dozen rebel sharpshooters. Numbers of men were brought in from the line, Sunday, all wounded by sharpshooters, yet the rebels were not a whit more successful at the bloody game than our cool boys.

THE WILY REBEL MAKES A SAD MISTAKE

In front of Newton's Division (Fourth corps) was a gun which annoyed the rebels exceedingly. Unknown to them it was supported by thirteen others which had not been unmasked. Monday morning in the gray of dawn, the enemy came up in large force to capture the gun and storm the works. Newton's men lay quietly behind, awaiting their approach. The rebels were received with a galling musketry fire, which, however, did not check their advance. It was Pat Cleburne's division again, who, it seems, were almost ubiquitous. They were transferred from point to point along the line as the exigencies of the rebel service required, and they did not belie their reputation as fighters. They had reached a point within a hundred yards of Newton's concealed guns, when they were opened upon by the two full batteries and the extra section The slaughter was fearful Newton's guns were double shotted with canister and then filled up with damaged small ammunition In the dim light of morning the bold rebels were seen to hold their arms over their bowed heads, as school boys do to avoid a blow, and shrink from the rush of the deadly storm Yet they came on, and Newton's gunners worked more desperately The rapid discharge of the cannon resembled the din of a vast boiler shop, and the rattle of the musketry brought to mind the sound of a roaring conflagration, varying occasionally by the falling of a brick wall It was almost fiendish to laugh at such destruction of human life, but they brought it upon themselves in the course of the great game of battle They halted, and the halt ruined them. They fled in a confused mass back to their works Newton lost six men wounded, the enemy's loss has been estimated as high as 1,800 Since then, Pat Cleburne's division has been heard from in our rear, on our flanks, and elsewhere, but I believe the division is a myth—I cannot see how mortal men could stand such a drubbing

—A coward once is a coward always.—Journal

Exactly so. And that explains why we prefer some other than the Journal's man for a comrade in arms. It might have added: "A coward who would once desert would desert again;" which would have shown an additional reason why we should prefer a more reliable companion.

—We were among the visitors at the store of J. H. Lutz, opposite the Post Office yesterday. It is wonderful to see the amount of trade going on, in a single establishment, which really appears to be done there.—Goods were heaped upon the counters, shelves and floors, in glorious confusion.—Among the pile we saw some most lovely bits of shoes for feminite feet of delicate construction Dry goods and clothing, gents' and youths' boots and shoes, Ladies,' Misses and children's gaiters, Dress goods and silks, go to make up the assortment at this popular establishment. Call and speak to Mr. Lutz about it.

—We have been called upon by Mr. J. W. Smith, the mining superintendent of the U. S. Gold Mining Co., of New York Mr. S. has just arrived from New York to manage the affairs of the company in this region. He brought with him a number of Cornish miners, and proposes to commence immediate operations on the company's claims on the Gregory Second, and the Gregory Extension. They own 262 feet on the former lode, together with 250 on the latter Both of these are exceedingly rich, and we may expect large returns from their operation as soon as the mine is developed Mr. S. also informs us that he is preparing to erect a mill for the company, as soon as practicable.

STREET OBSTRUCTIONS.—We have noticed of late great carelessness on the part of individuals in obstructing streets.

Horses are often hitched on the side walks or in such a way as to greatly incommode all passers by. Wagons are left in such a position as to occupy half the street in some instances, to the detriment of the public. Now while it may be perfectly proper for parties to obstruct a portion of the street while building, there is no good excuse for occupying the streets at other times with lumber, boxes, wood or timber, or even with goods, hung out in front of the places where they are offered for sale, so near the side walks As to be in the way of the heads of passers by, and we believe the city ordinance on this subject ought to be enforced

The streets ought also to be cleaned and kept with that degree of neatness that we shall not be ashamed of them. To effect this, dirt should not be swept into the streets Indeed there is an ordinance, prohibiting it. Fast riding and driving ought also to be stopped at once But a few days since, a valuable mule was nearly ruined by being run against by a team

The truth is, our streets are at best very narrow, and consequently greater care should be taken.

HOFFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev J. Newton Brown, D D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any single preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this more readily in regard to Hoffland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an empirical mixture I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper facts, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by a manifest relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart Bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anyce or Coriander Seed

This class of bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Spirits of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death. Beware of them.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt Get One bottle Hoffland's German Bitters, and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less You will have all the virtues of HOFFLAND'S BITTERS in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you

AND FRINDS OF SOLDIERS,

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army, to the fact that "Hoofland's German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be seen that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of this kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that if these bitters were freely used among our soldiers hundreds of lives might be saved, that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."

PHILADELPHIA, August 22d, 1863.

Messrs Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofflands German Bitters have saved my life. There is no mistake about it It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names have been appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of the case. I am, and have been, for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated Battery, and and under the immediate command of Captain R B Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as my one could be, and retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more, I was scarcely able to swallow anything; but if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomache. Life could not last under such circumstances and accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederereck Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being able to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal To yours invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to yours Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONNE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our colleague, Mr Malone restored to health.

HENDRIE & BUTLER, Proprietors.

MINERS, MILL OWNERS, and the Public generally are hereby respectfully informed that this establishment is now fully supplied with material of all kinds required for mountain work, and prepared to fill all orders for

[illegible]

CAST OR WROUGHT IRON WORK.

Their trains from the Missouri river keep them constantly supplied with

IRON AND COKE, of the Best Quality,

When from low water or frontier disturbances, it is found impracticable or unsafe to rely upon the Missouri river for transportation, they have trains constantly freighting across Iowa, from the terminus of the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad to Council Bluffs and Plattsmouth, whence shipments are made to this point by their own trains These arrangements insure a

Full Supply, at All Seasons, Without Fail.

During the past summer, they have much more than DOUBLED the capacity of their establishment, having erected a

NEW MACHINE SHOP

twenty-four by fifty feet, two stories high, into which they are preparing to place a new

Steam Engine, of Twenty-Five Horse Power.

They have also recently obtained a new and greatly improved

with which they will be enabled to make or repair machinery with an accuracy heretofore unattained, and with great rapidity.

In addition to this, they have also added to their machinery new

Drill Presses, Screw Cutters, Lathes, &c.

All of the very latest and most approved patents—such as are in use in the best Machine Shops in the Eastern cities With their new machinery in full operation, they will be enabled to execute all work in their line in a manner

By any establishment west of St. Louis, Mo.

They have also greatly enlarged the capacity of the FOUNDERY, so that they are now prepared to make THE LARGEST CASTINGS required for Quartz Mills or any kind of machinery in use in this Territory.

Particular attention will be given to the manufacture of

FREIBURG PANS.

They are prepared to cast any number of these pans on short notice, of the best material, and in the most satisfactory manner All persons desiring these pans are invited to call and examine their work, material and prices, before ordering elsewhere

Such are their present facilities, that any description of

required in this country can be manufactured and delivered in any part of the Territory,

from the time the order for the same is received here.

The senior member of the firm is proprietor of two other extensive founderies and machine shops—one at Council Bluffs, and the other at Burlington, Iowa. This establishment, therefore, has facilities for supplying the wants of this Territory possessed by no other in the country, as any article which it is inconvenient to manufacture here can be immediately forwarded by their trains from the other founderies

Mr. BUTLER, whose personal attention is given to the business at this point, has made it his constant study for three years past to ascertain and supply the wants of Miners and Mill Owners in this . None but THE BEST WORKMEN are employed, and the strictest attention is given to every department.

MILL STAMPS AND SHOES

Always on hand, and warranted of the best material.

The shoes for Quartz Mill Stamps manufactured at Council Bluffs, are confessedly the best and most durable in use in the mountains. They are made of superior iron, and chilled by a new process A full supply will be kept constantly on hand.

Particular attention is given to the Building of

STEAM ENGINES

For Hoisting Ore and Water from Shafts.

Several of these engines are now in use here, and others are in process of construction.

REPAIRING.

Machinery of all kinds repaired on short notice, in a workmanlike manner, and on reasonable terms.

ONE HUNDRED TONS FREIGHT

Now on the road between the Mississippi River and this point, including

FIVE STEAM ENGINES,

MILL STAMPS AND SHOES,

CASTINGS OF VARIOUS KINDS,

AND WROUGHT IRON WORK

Of every description. Arrangements have been perfected by which they will hereafter be kept constantly supplied.

Thankful for the generous patronage heretofore bestowed, the proprietors are determined, by fair dealing, excellence of work, and strict attention to business, to merit a continuance of public favor.

WHEELER'S

Amalgamating & Separating Pans.

It is acknowledged by all who have examined the principles and witnessed the operation of these pans, that they are decidedly superior for triturating and amalgamating purposes to any other in use The most important principle connected with these Pans, is the separation of

THE TRITURATING PROCESS

From that Extracting the Amalgum From the Sand.

The chief cause of the loss of the precious metal arises from the passing off of the same in combination with the Quicksilver, during the process of trituration and in cleaning up By the introduction of the SEPARATING PAN to follow the triturating, this loss is entirely avoided. In working these machines there is appreciable, and hence more of the precious metals Where these pans have been introduced and operated by the side of others on sands from the same vat,

NO LOSS OF QUICKSILVER,

THE WHEELER PANS

Have uniformly gained a large percentage of metal, over their competitors, as well as a still larger percentage in the amount of work performed.

J. WENTZ WILSON, of Black Hawk,

is the sole agent, for the manufacture and sale of the Wheeler Pan in Colorado Territory.

OUR TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

ANDREW JOHNSON,

OF TENNESSEE.

Good News for Colorado.

In conversation with Dr. Worrall yesterday, we gathered some important items respecting discoveries, which may affect the future of Colorado.

Our readers have been made aware of the fact that Messrs. Keith & Co. have announced their intention so far to reconstruct their mill as to adapt it to the Chlorine process of saving gold. There is no question that this process is the best adapted to extract the gold from the peculiar class of ores that abound in this Territory. The only question is, that of expense. Dr. Worrall goes so far as to offer to bind himself to pay $1,000, to any person who will take from the tailings of ten tons of ores, after they have been submitted to the Keith Chlorine process, one half ounce of gold, and is willing that they should pick the most refractory quartz in the mountains, for the experiment.

It appears that Messrs. Keith & Co have some new method, which is comparatively inexpensive of manufacturing Chlorine, and that but one difficulty has remained to hinder their success, that was, the expense attending the transportation of the crude material, which was supposed to exist only at a great distance from the mountains of this region.

This difficulty has been overcome within the past few days by the discovery, on the part of Dr. Worrall, of the article in question, which, he informs us, exists within about twenty-two miles of Central, in abundance.

Two of the Keith Co, having examined the spot, express themselves abundantly satisfied with the Dr.'s discovery, and have sent Geo. E. Congdon, Esq, to New York for the purpose of forming a company, with capital sufficient, to work the newly discovered deposit.

Should the expectations of the gentlemen be realized an entire change will be introduced in the mining operations of the Territory, and our production of gold enormously increased.

Chlorine may be regarded as the most searching of all the original uncompounded chemical elements. It usually exists as a greenish yellow gas. It is usually found in nature as a chloride of sodium (common salt,) chloride of potassium or chloride of magnesia, often in combination with each other, and sometimes separate as in common salt. It may be obtained by placing in a glass retort, three parts of common salt, two of peroxyd of Manganese and two of sulphuric acid, diluted with its own weight of water. By this means the chlorine is liberated and may be collected by passing it under water and collecting as other gases are collected. This gas can also be obtained here readily for the purpose of experimenting from the chloride of lime, which is an artificial compound, much used for bleaching and disinfecting purposes. It is extremely pungent, and if inhaled unmixed with air or other substances will cause speedy death.

In evolving this gas, for the purpose of experiment in '61 in company with an older brother, the accidental breakage of the tube through which it was passing, came near being fatal to us both. He did not recover from its effects for three months, and is perhaps not entirely well from its effects yet.

It is the active principle of muriatic acid. It is well known that mixed muriatic and nitric acid will, to use a common expression, cut gold, and is the only acid which will do it. It is the chlorine which acts in this case, and the result is a chloride of gold. The process of chlorination consists first in simply reducing and desulphurizing the ores and then treating them in a bath of chlorine gas. With the method proposed by the Messrs. Keith, we are totally unacquainted. We do not know whether or not water is to be used, but presume it is. Gold held in solution by nitro-chloric acid, can be readily precipitated. We suppose it will however be found more difficult to precipitate it from the mass of pulp which would be formed in treating the ores. Of this we hope to be able to speak at a future day, and may perhaps be able to give the modus of the entire process proposed. One thing is perfectly certain, that for the purposes of assaying, there is no more effective agent; the only question being whether it [illegible] effective on a large scale, [illegible] it will as we have stated be [illegible].

[illegible] a number of hot springs in the [illegible] of which we speak, which are [illegible] impregnated with it, which discharge water enough to drive a quartz mill. [illegible] this process be extensively introduced and a mode of evolving the gas sufficiently inexpensive be discovered, these springs will be of immense value.

Constitutional Convention.

The Committee on Finances and Compensation reported the following compensation for officers, which we presume will be adopted. We are glad to see the disposition to observe the most rigid economy:

Sec. 2.—The Lieutenant Governor shall receive as presiding officer of the Senate, the sum of five dollars per day during the session of that body, and the same allowance for mileage in going to the capitol as is allowed to other member of the Legislative assembly. In case he becomes acting Governor, he shall be entitled to the same salary herein allowed to the Governor, for the time served.

Sec 2.—The Secretary of State shall be entitled to the annual salary of one thousand dollars.

Sec 4.—The State Treasurer shall be entitled to an annual sallary of eight hundred dollars.

Sec. 5.—The Superintendent of Public Instruction and Librarian shall be entitled to an annual salary of one thousand dollars

Sec 6.—The Attorney General shall be entitled to an annual salary of four hundred dollars.

Sec 7 —The Judges of the Supreme Court shall each receive an annual salary of two thousand dollars.

Sec 8.—Members of the Legislative Assembly shall be entitled to receive as per diem, each three dollars per day during the sitting of that body, and ten cents for every mile he shall travel in going to the place of the meeting of the Legislature on the most usual route: Provided, that any member who fails to attend such session, shall receive no payment. The presiding officers, Chief Clerk and Sargeant-at-Arms of the respective houses, shall each receive the sum of five dollars per day.

Sec. 9.—Salaries of State Officers and Judges shall be paid quarterly. Members and officers of the Legislature at the close of each session

Sec. 10.—The Legislature shall never grant any public compensation to any police officer, agent, sevant or contractors, after the services shall have been rendered or contract entered into Nor shall the compensation of any public officer be increased or diminished during his ter of office.

Sec. 11.—The Legislative Assembly shall make such appropriations from time to time as shall be deemed necessary to defray incidental expenses, ever keeping in view the necessity of a most rigid economy

How They Agree.

There is an evident attempt being made by leading Fremont and Copperhead journals to get at a coalition for the purpose of uniting the sore headed member of the Union party and Copperhead journals. A few extracts will show this attempt at once—Hear them. The New Nation, Fremont's organ in New York, says.

"There is so little difference between this party (Fremont's) and the Democracic party that it would be easy to adopt a common ticket, which would sweep everything before. Such a step would be to the interest of the Democratic ticket if it would not remain four years longer in the back-ground.

The New York World is no less anxious for the combination but represents the copperhead party for which it claims to speak and which it claims to lead It says.

"But why should Democrats have any choice in the action of the Republican party (supposing it were to be successful) as between Lincoln and Fremont? On the slavery question their policy would indeed be the same; but an honest slavery man would be better at the head of the Government than a truckling, time serving Abolitionist. And then Fremont is unequivocally for free speech, a free press, the right of asylum, the Monroe doctrine, and the guarantees of personal liberty. There is nothing in the slavery question to be weighed for one moment against these So far as the Radicals consent to stand upon the principles of the Cleveland platform, they have a bond of sympathy with the Democratic party and with all true patriots

Remarkable Presence of Mind.—In the rear of a gentleman's house in Gold Hill there stands a high wall of solid masonry, which was built there to support an embankment. Several days ago it was observed that the wall was becoming cracked and insecure, and threatening to tumble down. The gentleman immediately hastened to warn his servant girl to remove her quarters to some other part of the house, because if the wall fell it must inevitably crush her bedroom to splinters Then rose up this fair young maiden and rushed frantically to that bedroom, and seized her idolized new bonnet and rushed back again and deposited it in a place of safety remote from the threatening wall, and then deliberately meandered back to that self-same bedchamber again and turned into her bunk with the serene indifference that such a maiden always feels when she knows that her Sunday harness is beyond the reach of misfortune or destruction. Presence of mind like that is at least remarkable—possibly we might not be going too far if we even called it unusual and extraordinary.—That wall may fall yet, and mash that girl, but it will always be a comfort to her bereaved relations to know that her bonnet is all safe.—Nevada Territorial Enterprise, May 14th.

A Petrified Bee Tree.—The Grass Valley National of June 11th says:

There was found, a few days since, in the diggings of John Chew & Co., on Buckeye Hill, in this county, between Greenhorn creek and Chalk Bluff mountain, a bee tree, with a large beehive, honey and bees all petrified The remaining portion of the tree in which the beehive was found is two and a half feet in diameter and about forty feet long. Chew & Co. found the petrified bee tree seventy-five feet beneath the surface, while piping their claims The beehive is no matter of fancy, but of pure demonstration Before us a sample of the comb, full of honey, all petrified. The normal thickness of the comb, the duplicate strata of cells, with their invariable hexagonal shape, are all before us as distinctly as if a fresh piece of honey comb, all dripping and just cut from the box, had been brought and placed before our eyes on a sheet of white paper. This proves that the honey business was carried on in this country a good many years ago.

The Albany Journal asserted that the New Nation is edited by a member of General Fremont's staff, the New York Post says it believes that statement a mistake, that the reputed editor of the sheet in question is General Cluseret, a French officer.

SUNDAY COLUMN.

Only Look Up.

LOOK UNTO ME, AND BE YE SAVED.

"Pray," said a mother to her dying child,
"Pray," and in token of assent he smiled.
Most willing was the spirit, but so weak
The failing frame that he could hardly speak.
At length he said, "Dear mother, in God's book.
Is it not written, unto Jesus look?
I can look up. I have no strength for prayer,
"It is, my child, it is, thus saith the Lord
And we may confidently trust his word."
The boy looked up—to Jesus raised his eyes—
And flew, a happy spirit, to the skies.

Faith and Love.

Philosophers have measured the mountains,
Fathomed the depth of seas of states and kings;
Walked with a staff to heaven, and traced fountains;
But there are two vast, spacious things
The which to measure it doth more behoove,
Yet few there are that sound them. Faith and Love

Rest in the Lord

God draws a cloud over each gleaming morn—
Who would ask why?
It is because all noblest things are born
In agony.

Only upon some cross of pain or woe
God's sun may lie
Each soul, redeemed from self and sin, must know
Its Calvary

Yet we must crave neither joy nor grief,
God chooses best,
He only knows our sick soul's fit relief,
And gives us rest.

More than our feeble hearts can ever pine
For holiness,
That Father, in his tenderness divine,
Yearneth to bless.

He never sends a joy not meant in love,
Still less a pain
Our gratitude the sunlight falls to prove;
Our faith, the rain.

In his we are safe—we falter on Through storm and mire;
Above, beside around us, there is One
Will never tire

What though we fall, and bruised and wounded lie,
Our lips in dust,
God's arm shall lift us to victory,
In him we trust.

For neither life, nor death, nor things below,
Nor things above
Shall ever sever us that we should go
From this great Love.

The Proof of Love.—The King of Armenia not fulfilling his engagement, Cyrus entered the country, and having taken him and all his family prisoners, ordered them instantly before him.

"Armenius," said he, "you are free, for you are now sensible of your error. And what will you give me if I restore your wife to you?"

"All that I am able"

"What if I restore your children?"

"All that I am able."

"And you, Tigranes," said he, turning to the son, "what would you do to save your wife from servitude?"

Now Tigranes was but lately married, and had a great love for his wife. "Cyrus," he replied, "to save her from servitude, I would willingly lay down my life."

"Let each have his own again," said Cyrus, and when he departed, one spoke of his clemency, another of his valor, another of his beauty and the graces of his person; upon which Tigranes asked his wife "if she thought him handsome?"

"Really," said she, "I did not look at him"

"At whom, then, did you look?"

"At him who offered to lay down his life for me"

Greater love hath no man than this, that he should lay down his life for his friends. Tigranes was willing to ~~die for his wife.~~ But while we were yet enemies, Christ died for us. How far this love all earthly love excels'

The wife of Tigranes did not look at the king in his beauty. She could only look on him who was willing to die for her.—What shall we desire in heaven more than to look on the face of Him who did die for us? There is beauty, glory, infinitely-resplendent glory in heaven, and eye hath not seen nor heart conceived it, but nothing there will so attract the believer's gaze as the face of Him who gave his life for sinners. Wonderful love! Unspeakable love! And we may look on him and love him forever.

A young man who had lost his mother, to whom he was most tenderly attached, had often expressed a strong desire to go to heaven that he might once more meet his beloved mother As he had no interest in religion, his desire for heaven had no higher object than this. Sometime afterward he became a Christian, and when asked about the anticipations of meeting his mother in heaven, he said, "It seems to me as if I should want to gaze upon my Saviour a thousand years before thinking of any one else."

Christ had laid down his life for him.—He would not look at another.—Observer.

The Israelites.—The Wilna Messenger states that according to the latest calculations made, the number of Jews now amounts to 7,000,000, about one half of whom reside in Europe Russia contains the most.—1,220,000; next comes Austria, 853,000; then Prussia, 234,500, and the other countries in Germany, together, 192,000 One remarkable fact is, that in France, Belgium and England, where the Jews are entirely emancipated, the number is gradually decreasing, while in those countries where they are still subjected to a certain restraint, they increase.

One of the Giants.—"John," said Mr. Howard, "this is not a suitable place to be throwing your ball; it may go through the window; you had better go outside of the enclosure."

John started to obey his father; and as he turned towards the gate, gave his ball a toss; it hit upon the fence, and bounding sideways went through the glass

Mr. Howard hearing the crash, turned and looked at his son, who seeing that his father thought him disobedient, said in excuse, "Father I was just going out of the gate, but thought I might throw it, only once"

"Only Once!—Only Once; so that old giant is following you, is he, my son?"

"A giant, father! I never saw a giant," said John, starting round, and looking earnestly at his father.

"You never saw him? Did you not just tell me, that you obeyed Only Once instead of me?"

Oh! replied John, I understand now, what you mean'

Gone Before.—The Rev John Newton one day said to a gentleman who was mourning over the death of a lovely daughter, "Sir, if you were going to the East Indies, I suppose you would like to send a remittance before you. This little girl is just like a remittance sent to heaven before you go yourself. I suppose a merchant on 'Change is never heard expressing himself thus: 'Oh, my dear ship, I am sorry she has got into port so soon! 'I am sorry she has escaped the storms that are coming?' Neither should we sorrow for children dying.—S. S. Times.

Tempted by Degrees.—John Newton, says, Satan seldom comes to Christians with great temptations, or with a temptation to commit a great sin. You bring a green log and candle together, and they are very safe neighbors; but bring a few shavings and set them alight, and then bring a few small sticks and let them take fire, and the log be in the midst of them, and you will soon get rid of your log. And so it is with little sins You will be startled with the idea of committing a great sin, and so the devil brings you a little temptation, and leaves you to indulge yourself. "There is no great harm in this," "no great peril in that;" and so by those little chips we are first easily lighted up, and at last the green log is burned Watch and pray that ye enter not into temptation.

Home.—The road to home happiness lies over small stepping-stones. Slight circumstances are the stumbling-blocks of families The prick of a pin, says the proverb, is enough to make and empire insipid The tenderer the feelings the more painful the wound. A cold unkind word checks and withers the blossom of the dearest love, as the most delicate rings of the vine are troubled by the faintest breeze. The misery of a life born of a chance observation If the true history of quarrels, public and private, were honestly written, it would be silenced with an uproar of derision.—Jesse.

——No telegraphic report yesterday.

——The little ones are all invited to attend the Sunday School's to-day. Arrangements are to be made with regard to the grand pic-nic in Quartz Valley.

——The number of freight and emigrant teams arriving at this time probably exceeds that of any other year since the advent of the first families.

——Preaching at the Methodist Hall, Black Hawk at 10½ A. M. to day and Washington Hall, Central at 8 o'clock P. M. by Rev B. T. Vincent.

——Benson Bros. have just received a fine assortment of drugs now in great demand, including morphine, citric acid, and white lead. Bird cages in splendid variety. 10tf

——We are under obligations to Geo. W. Kassler, Denver news agent, for the receipt of a beautiful calender and some fine maps, printed by the Home Insurance Co. of New York, of which he is agent.

Lost.—Somewhere between the Post Office and the junction of Eureka Gulch, a purse containing $52 50 in greenbacks—one $20, $10 and a two and the rest in small change. The finder will confer a favor by returning the same to this office. *

——Ed. C. Parmelee has received the appointment of U. S. Collector for this collection district. Ed is a "bully boy," and deserving of most any position. Geo. Wilson is U. S. Assessor, instead of collector as was yesterday stated.

——Family folks will do well to read the card of Messers Lessier and Sauer, provision merchants and dealers in fancy groceries, on Lawrence street. These gentlemen have just arrived from the east with a large splendid stock, complete in every department.

——Mr. John Field, for a long time in the employ of Jo Bleacher, has ... purchased some very fine goods ... Main street, just a door ... Howard & Colony, which belong ... previous to the sale.

Sunday Lecture in Lawrence Hall.—Dr. Worrall, will, by request, deliver a lecture in Lawrence Hall on this (Sunday) afternoon at 2½ o'clock. Subject "The times in which we live and the lessons they teach." He lecture in Nevada Hall in the evening at 7½ o'clock.

——The Montana was filled last night by a seemingly appreciative audience, assembled to witness the performance of Harold, the Bushranger. To morrow night, (Monday) the colossal effort will come under the weight of the multitude who will gather to witness the famous play of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Secure tickets before you commence your daily labor this morning.

——Mr. Storer, our duly commissioned Nevada agent, has commenced the delivery of the daily Register in Russell and Leavenworth Gulches, carrying the latest telegraphic news to those places at the same cost as those near at hand. Those parties who have long desired the paper brought to them in this region, have now the opportunity to secure it. Stop the carrier as he passes, gentlemen.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.—It is only necessary to announce that this great moral drama, taken from Mrs. Beecher Stowe's novel of the same name, will be produced at the Montana to-morrow evening, to crowd the Theatre to its utmost capacity. No drama of modern times has attracted so much attention as "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and the bare announcement of it on the bills of any Theatre East or West, is sure to draw the largest and most discriminating audiences of the season. The piece is capable of "great effects," and we are assured that Langrishe & Dougherty have spared neither pains or expense in its production—when played last winter in Denver, it had a most successful run, and was pronounced by the Press and the people perfect in every way. A word to the wise: secure seats in time, there will be a jam.

——The Police Court record stands as follows, for the past few days. Quietude and happiness has reigned, free from disorder consequent upon the occasion of too busy a time at the Police Court:

On Wednesday Frank Riley was arraigned for being drunk in the streets, and fined $2,00.

On Thursday, Alexander Anderson was accused of the same offence, and shared the same penalty.

On Friday, James S. Ewres was charged with conduct involving a breach of the peace. Found guilty and fined $5,00.

Hugh Mathison was charged with being drunk. Fined $2,00.

On Saturday, Samuel Jones was charged with a breach of the peace of our goodly City, and made to feel the greatness of his error in the penalty of a five dollar fine.

Washington Rady was charged in a similar way, and fined likewise, $5,00.

Pranks of Genius.—Some of the most remarkable geniuses of the world, as well as the most stupid dolts have been victims of rum. Rum drinking did not give the sparkle and brilliancy of mind that attracted the attention of mankind but was the cloud upon the heavens. Coleridge, when he was hired for time to perform some literary labor, he had to be confined to his cups that it might be sure of its completion; and when it was done he ran at full speed to the gin where he could revel with the vilest of the vile. DeQuincey was as much a slave to opium. Burns was less a brute but a drunkard still, and so were Charles Lamb and Byron, who drew their inspirations from gin, and Steele, the author of the "Christian Hero," himself the hero of a grog shop, and Douglas Jerrold, who loved brandy better than letters, and Poe, the author of the "Raven," whose mind was full of gloom from the effects of drinking, and who died of delirium tremens. Thus the loftiest minds have given way at times to the lowest vices, and those who soared to heaven in intellect were as low as the brutes in filthy habits.

German Patriotism.—It has been stated that the Germans as a body are for Fremont. A German in San Francisco says it is not so. Of the two hundred and twenty German newspapers in the United States, not more than ten expressed preference for Fremont before the nomination. The German Demokrat, in San Francisco, has hoisted the names of Lincoln and Johnson, and a feeling prevails among Union men that the Germans in the United States, true to their loyal instincts, are in a body going for Lincoln.

"Changing Their Base."—It is said that the Radical Germans of Chicago have repudiated the action of their delegates to the Cleveland Convention, protesting that they were not elected by a majority of the Association. They emphatically declare themselves for Lincoln and Johnson, and have resolved to discountenance every effort that tends to the disruption of the Union party.

Strength of Masonry in the World's Population.—From the most accurate statistics to be obtained, we place the number of regular Lodges now in existence at about 8,200, having an aggregate membership of about 550,000. The number of non affiliated Masons scattered through the world amounts to nearly 3,000,000.—[S. F. Mercury.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

Philadelphia June 23, 1861 — J. NEWTON BROWN

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart Bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Spirits of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death. Beware of them.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One bottle Hoofland's German Bitters, and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of HOOFLAND'S BITTERS in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS AND FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS,

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army, to the fact that "Hoofland's German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be seen that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved, that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."

Philadelphia, August 22d, 1863.

Messrs Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hooflands German Bitters have saved my life. There is no mistake about it. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names have been appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of the case. I am, and have been, for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated Battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be, and retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more, I was scarcely able to swallow anything, but if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under such circumstances and accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully to rescue me from the grasp of the Dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commence taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being able to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months, for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, — ISAAC MALONEY.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Maloney restored to health.

EUREKA FOUNDERY

AND

Eureka Gulch, ... Central City.

HENDRIE & BUTLER, Proprietors

MINERS, MILL OWNERS, and the Public generally are hereby respectfully informed that this establishment is now fully supplied with material o all kinds required for mountain work, and prepared t fill all orders for

CAST OR WROUGHT IRON WORK.

Their trains from the Missouri river keep them constantly supplied with

IRON AND COAL, of the Best Quality.

When from low water or frontier disturbances, it is found impracticable or unsafe to rely upon the Missouri river for transportation, they have trains constantly freighting across Iowa, from the terminus of the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad to Council Bluffs and Plattsmouth, whence shipments are made to this point by their own trains These arrangements insure a

Full Supply, at All Seasons, Without Fail

During the past summer, they have much more than DOUBLED the capacity of their establishment, having erected a

NEW MACHINE SHOP

twenty four by fifty feet, two stories high, into which they are preparing to place a new

Steam Engine, of Twenty-Five Horse Power

They have also recently obtained a new and greatly improved

IRON PLANING MACHINE,

with which they will be enabled to make or repair machinery with an accuracy heretofore unattained, nd with great rapidity

In addition to this, they havey have also added to their machinery new

Drill Presses, Screw Cutters, Lathes, &c.

All of the very latest and most approved patents—such as are in use in the best Machine-Shops in the Eastern cities With their new machinery in full operation, they will be enabled to execute all work in their line in a manner

By any establishment west of St. Louis, Mo.

They have also greatly enlarged the capacity of the FOUNDERY, so that they are now prepared to make THE LARGEST CASTINGS required for Quartz Mills or any kind of machinery in use in this Territory

Particular attention will be given to the manufacture of

FREIBURG PANS.

They are prepared to cast any number of these pans on short notice, of the best material, and in the most satisfactory manner All persons desiring these pans are invited to call and examine their work, material, and prices, before ordering elsewhere

Such are their present facilities, that any description of

required in this country can be manufactured and delivered in any part of the Territory,

from the time the order for the same is received here.

The senior member of the firm is proprietor of two other extensive founderies and machine shops—one at Council Bluffs, and the other at Burlington, Iowa. This establishment, therefore, has facilities for supplying the wants of this Territory possessed by no other in the country, as any article which it is inconvenient to manufacture here can be immediately forwarded by their trains from the other founderies.

Mr. BUTLER, whose personal attention is given to the business at this point, has made it his constant study for three years past to ascertain and supply the wants of Miners and Mill Owners in his line None but THE BEST WORKMEN are employed, and the strictest attention is given to every department.

MILL STAMPS AND SHOES

Always on hand, and warranted of the best material.

The shoes for Quartz Mill Stamps manufactured at Council Bluffs, are confessedly the best and most durable in use in the mountains They are made of superior iron, and chilled by a new process. A full suppl will be kept constantly on hand.

Particular attention is given to the Building of

STEAM ENGINES

For Hoisting Ore and Water from Shafts

Several of these engines are now in use here, and others are in process of construction.

REPAIRING.

Machinery of all kinds repaired on short notice, in a workmanlike manner, and on reasonable terms.

ONE HUNDRED TONS FREIGHT

Now on the road between the Mississippi River and this point, including

FIVE STEAM ENGINES,

MILL STAMPS AND SHOES,

CASTINGS OF VARIOUS KINDS,

AND WROUGHT IRON WORK

Of every description. Arrangements have been perfected by which they will hereafter be kept constantly supplied.

Thankful for the generous patronage heretofore bestowed, the proprietors are determined, by fair dealing, excellence of work, and strict attention to business, to merit a cont nuance of public favor.

For Excellence of Work and Reasonable Prices

WE DEFY COMPETITION.

WHEELER'S

Amalgamating & Separating Pans.

It is acknowledged by all who have examined the principles and witnessed the operation of these pans, that they are decidedly superior for triturating and amalgamating purposes to any other in use The most important principle connected with these Pans, is the separation of

THE TRITURATING PROCESS

From that Extracting the Amalgum From the Sand.

The chief cause of the loss of the precious metal arises from the passing off of the same in combination with the Quicksilver, during the process of trituration and in cleaning up By the introduction of the SEPARATING PAN to follow the triturating, this loss is entirely avoided In working these machines there is

NO LOSS OF QUICKSILVER,

appreciable, and hence none of the precious metals Where these pans have been introduced and operated by the side of others on sands from the same vat,

THE WHEELER PANS

Have uniformly gained a large percentage of metal, over their competitors, as well as a still larger percentage in the amount of work performed.

J. WENTZ WILSON, of Black Hawk,

is the sole agent, for the manufacture and sale of the Wheeler Pan in Colorado Territory.

OUR TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

ANDREW JOHNSON,

OF TENNESSEE.

U. S. Mint.

From the Journal of Friday last we clip the following:

Some two years since, says the New York Tribune, Colorado had a good private mint, coining all the gold brought to it at a moderate charge. Her people—at least her Delegate—would have a U S Branch Mint in Denver. We protested, and begged that the outlay ($75,000 to start with,) might be postponed till the return of peace No use, the mint must be had immediately—that is, the money for it—and it was. The firm that was coining all the gold offered to them for a trifling seigniorage, now sold their mint out to the Government, pocketed the money, and shut up shop; and it stays shut to this hour, and nothing replaces it

It is not the first time the Journal has either directly or indirectly attacked the mint. Indeed, this attacking and disparaging of the institutions of the Territory, is a way the Journal has of advancing our Territorial interests It says the people of Colorado are incapable of self-government. That the members of the constitutional convention are all a set of dolts, incapable of discussion, thought or argument

That, in case of the constitution now being formed should be adopted, we should be obliged to place a set of "foreign" political paupers in office, that the people would do it, because they are such a set of dolts.—Then it attacks the mint—calls it a humbug, &c.

Now the facts concerning the mint at Denver are just these The mint of Clark, Gruber & Co, was purchased by the United States, and increased to more than double the usual size, and active operations commenced. To-day they are fully prepared to assay all gold which may be brought there for that purpose There is a full corps of operators—so that our citizens may present their gold there—have it run into ingots, stamped with its weight and value, and returned to them It is true that no coining is done there, and at the same time, equally true that none is needed. If coining could be done there, it would not be, because coin is not used here as a circulating medium, and for all the purposes of commerce, for which gold is used, it is even more valuable in bullion than coin. Large quantities of coin are being constantly melted into bars in New York, just because it is more valuable for the purposes of commerce in that shape.

We believe we are perfectly safe in saying that were the mint at Denver prepared for coining, not one dollar out of a thousand produced in our Territory would be coined here. If any one has any doubt on this question, he can easily satisfy himself by calling on our bankers and asking them how much they would have coined and how much coin is asked for by those with whom they deal.—Even the mint at Philadelphia coins but a very small amount of the gold produced in the United States. Nor will any mint in the United States do it, until such time as the demand for gold shall become less urgent. It therefore follows that the additional expenditure which would be necessary to provide for coinage, would be a useless expense.

While Clark, Gruber & Co's coin here had the confidence of the people, it was not readily received at its face abroad, while the bars which are now sent out from the mint are authority the world over. The howl of the Tribune, or of the Journal here, is consequently groundless.

MR LINCOLN'S LAST ANECDOTE.—A gentleman just returned from Washington, relates the following incident that transpired at the White House the other day:

Some gentlemen were present from the West, excited and troubled about the commissions and omissions of the Administration. The President heard them patiently and then replied; "Gentlemen, suppose all the property you were worth was in gold, and you had put it in the hands of Blondin, to carry it across the Niagara river on a rope, would you shake the cable or keep shouting out to him—Blondin stand up a little straighter—Blondin stoop a little more—go a little faster—lean a little more to the North—lean a little more to the South? No, you would hold your breath as well as your tongue, and keep your hands off until he was safe over. The Government is carrying an immense weight. Untold treasures are in their hands They are doing the very best they can Don't bother them. Keep silence, and we'll get you safe across."

"YOURS'S GOOD A REB. AS I AM!"—The prisoners recently captured by Hunter in Virginia, near Staunton, passed through Dayton the other morning, on their way to Indianapolis There were about 1,500 of them, devoid of uniforms, and are represented as having been uncouth, and filthy in the extreme. The Dayton Journal relates the following incident which transpired at Union Depot in that city, while the cars were stopping:

"A man whose "fellow feeling made him wondrous kind" to the gray backs, presented them with some tobacco; and another fellow who said "it's a shame to coop men up that away in such weather!" handed some green-backs to the gray-backs. The [illegible] was very acceptable, and the reb. said in return—"Thank e—yours's good a reb. as I am!" The prisoners were fully posted on this city being "Val.'s" residence, and of his return home. The men were not as spirited as rebel prisoners used to be, and they were a woe-be-gone looking gang.

How Vallandigham Aided Deserters and Refugees in Canada.

The Detroit Tribune makes the following statement:

On the 2d of June, First Sergeant, G B McIntosh, of the 19th Michigan Infantry, was at Brantford, C W., and was approached by two seedy specimens of humanity, who informed him that they were "dead broke," and could find no employment They proposed that if he (McIntosh) would pay their fare to Detroit they would enlist in the Federal service McIntosh paid their way, and they took the cars for this city. Upon arriving at Windsor, they dropped off, refusing then, but stated that they would come over the next day McIntosh left his address with the men, fearing that he had seen the last of them, and that he had been swindled out of the fare he had paid. However, on the succeeding day one of the men came over and visited McIntosh, and proposed that if he would let him have the money to pay the hotel bills of himself and companion, and pay their fare over on the boat, both would come over and enlist according to agreement. A man from this city unbeknown to the proposed recruit was sent over the river to watch his operations. Upon arriving at Windsor the man was heard, in conversation with a refugee, to state that he was a deserter from the Thirteenth Michigan Volunteers, and that he and his companion proposed re-enter the service The refugee advised him not to go, and said he would apply to Vallandigham for aid, and that he would be all right

At this time Vallandigham was standing with his wife, on the piazza of the Hiron House. The refugee approached him, and stated the case of the deserter and his comrade. Animated conversation ensued, and soon the refugee came back informing the deserter that everything was arranged, that Vallandigham would advance the money to pay the hotel bills, and furnish them with funds to go to any part of the country they wished to reach The deserter replied that if this was the case, he would not enlist but would go where he could take care of himself By this action two recruits were lost to the Federal service

Other instances of a similar character have been known to have recently occurred at Windsor. It has also been known for a long time that Vallandigham has been furnishing letters of credit and introduction to deserters and refugees at Windsor on parties in Cincinnati who were sympathisers with the rebel cause These persons would cross at this city and Wyandotte, proceed to Cincinnati, and some of them would enlist, get their bounties, and, aided by their friends there, desert and return to Windsor Persons who have been robbing the Government have returned and boasted of their success in this nefarious business

☞ The gift of a house to Mrs General Meade was very gracefully and handsomely accomplished by the Philadelphians concerned, and the act was every way worthy of the "city of brotherly love" The North-American gives the following account:

By some means it became known in the city that Mrs Meade was about removing from her residence The knowledge suggested to a number of gentlemen, who are personal friends of the General and his family, that a home from which no removals would be necessary would be a pleasant acknowledgement of his services and a handsome memorial for his children.

The idea was acted upon, and with no difficulty a very desirable house, a house, on the south east corner of Nineteenth street and Delaney place, was purchased, together with the furniture, for the sum of thirteen thousand dollars. The whole was then presented to Mrs. Meade

A day or two after, the furniture of the house from which she had removed was advertised for sale, and Mrs. Meade, desiring to secure some portions of it, attended the sale. Just as she was preparing to bid, the auctioneer announced its sale. Mrs Meade left, and when she reached her new residence, lo! the furniture was there. It had been bought and sent in as a completion of the former purchase.

SHIPMENTS TO MEXICO.—The Courrier des Etats Unis, in its number of Saturday, says: "The Regency of Mexico, while waiting for the appointment of Consular Agents of the Empire in the ports of the United States, has ordered the officers of the customs to admit the invoices of vessels which come from the United States, if they have received the visit of the French Consul at the port of shipment, and if they conform with the existing regulations of Mexico The formalities demanded by the agents of Juarez are to be dispensed with. The Mexican ports which actually recognize the Empire are Vera Cruz, Tampico, Sisal, Laguna, Campeachy, Tuxpam, and Frontera.—The last named place serves as a port so long as Tabasco and Minatitlan shall be blockaded."

☞ Manton Marble, the editor of the World, rails at Mr Lincoln and Andrew Johnson for their humble births The Albany Express states that this railer was once a poor boy in Albany, who probably would not have emerged from obscurity but for the benevolence of a gentleman who befriended him, having the expectation that he would enter the ministry. And now the pitiful snob talks sneeringly of "rail splitters" and "boorish tailors."

☞ A general order from the War Department, just issued, commutes the sentence by courts martial upon deserters to imprisonment at the Dry Tortugas, Fla., during the war.

☞ Louis Napoleon has decreed a statute to Marshal Pelissier, to be erected in an open space to be crossed by the Boulevard Sebastopol.

☞ The exports of British produce and manufactures in four months this year were £48,892,420, or £10,159,609 more than in the same time last year.

☞ It is not very difficult to teach children to "mind," but it is very difficult sometimes to teach "grown folks" to mind their own business

☞ A hungry man is unmanageable. To be docile he must, like a horse, have first had a bit in his mouth.

☞ A Connecticut farmer has just discovered that his cows have been regularly milked by black snakes He killed five snakes.

☞ A great many persons wish to live their lives over again because they are where they might have sinned—and did not.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Reported expressly for the Miner's Register, at Central City, per Pacific Telegraph Line.

We clip from the Denver News of last night, the following piece of report, which we believe has not been received verbatim by us before, although the exact substance of the whole matter was given in our report of Saturday morning last. The line is still working badly from the east.

Philadelphia, July 7th

A Bulletin special from Chambersburg says, a man who has just arrived from Greencastle says, McCausland's command, formerly Jenkins', 1,500 strong, of cavalry and mounted infantry, with one battery, entered Hagerstown yesterday, and left at 11 o'clock by the Frederick pike, where the main body of rebels have gone A small party returned this morning and made a requisition on the people for 1,500 outfits and twenty thousand dollars, which was paid under threats of burning the town

Baltimore, July 7th

Ten o'clock, p. m—There can be no longer any doubt that Lee has sent a considerable portion of his army in this direction.

This morning the 8th Illinois cavalry made a reconnoisance to Middletown, five miles from Frederick, where they met the enemy in strong force, of infantry, cavalry and artillery After a sharp fight, our forces were repulsed and fell back on Frederick, the enemy slowly pursuing.

New York, 8th

Capt Custy, of the U. S Navy in a Cutter with only 16 men, ran ashore near Washington, on the 24th ult, and captured a courier with a valuable mail, took several prisoners and ran the gauntlet of several rebel gunboats on return, and was gone three days

A Time's special says a number of Wilson's men come into our lines daily Our loss will be cut down to a thousand It is understood that Fessenden won't contract currency.

Baltimore, 8th —We are assured at headquarters everything is progressing well, and with reinforcements now reaching the front, the rebels will find their expectations sadly disappointed

Wallace says the detachment of 100 day men behaved well in the fight.

New York, 8 —The World's special says the commisary stores of Hunter and Seigel, were not burned as reported, but were abandoned The rebels learning this, sent part of their force into Maryland, as is believed, scattering them about so as to detract our attention They hurried these stores which were large and valuable off by the way of Stanton

Gold Chains made to order from native gold, solid, 18 karats fine, of the most beautiful workmanship Call in and examine patterns at Howard & Colony's, Main street, Central City June 17 tf

——The telegraph line has been working badly for the past half week, and hence the scarcity of war news

——We are pleased to meet Mr B F. Woodward, the polite and courteous Denver operator, in town.

——A new supply of Brachmann's Sparkling Catawba Wine, just received at Massard's Drug Store, next door to the Post Office j12-3t

——Claret Wine, of excellent quality, just received at Massard's Drug Store, next door to the Post Office j12 3t

——Goldrick waxes funny again in his Saturday's issue He says many things of Central which will bear attention as soon as time and space permit ——Very few of our eastern exchanges now reach us by the regular mails, and the consequent scarcity of miscellaneous news makes it difficult for us to keep our readers posted thereon.

——Cook & Kimball's Bartola mill is undergoing a thorough and rapid course of reconstruction and repair, and it may be safely estimated that the 'machinery' will again be in operation within two week's time.

——The great play of Uncle Tom's Cabin was the wonder of the immense audience who assembled at its first production, last night It was decidedly successful, in every particular, having been put upon the stage with all the skill and care for which Messrs. Langrishe and Dougherty are justly celebrated. We may speak more at length of the various particulars hereafter Go and witness it again to-night.

——Among other distinguished strangers in town, we are glad to perceive Lieut Col Tappan, of the First Cavalry With him came Mr. Garvin, an old 'fifty-niner,' who has been living in the Southern part of Colorado, for the past three years He expresses himself highly pleased with the section, and was, at the time we met him, "more than half determined to remain with us"

——The mountain weather is hot beyond all hopes of comfort, during the greater part of our long summer days After the disappearance of the fervent old Sol behind the great mountain, which occurs towards the close of the day—we are left to enjoy comparative consolation in the cooler evening breezes, which often the rocky peaks, &c"

——The most enterprising of merchants, Mr. Lutz, of the Star Store, having has made a gigantic stride in the march of improvement, by the purchase and annexation of the large store room of Mr L. Reuben to his own. The combination of the two gives him an immence advantage, inasmuch as it enables him to assort and arrange his goods into departments, thus keeping each variety fresh and unsoiled, and enabling the customer to inspect the articles with much more ease than heretofore.

——Central's quietude was slightly ruffled on Sunday last, by the sudden appearance of a dashing cavalcade of Teutonic aristocracy riding furiously through Main street, which was well crammed with men, women and children This was exceedingly amusing to the horsemen, and as they were decidedly too drunk to see no danger in the sport, they were probably not blamable for the outrage. If, however, the like is again repeated, they may find themselves the objects of insult from our city police, who fail to see the propriety of such conduct. Look to the fact, ye workers of malt.

——We are informed that erroneous impressions have arisen among many of the people, with regard to the origin of the poisoned cream at Westover's celebration on the Fourth. In justice we must say, that there is not a shadow of foundation for the belief that the proprietors of the grounds knew aught of, or had anything to do with the manufacture or selling of the article until the effects of it were made known to every one present. In truth, he lost more by the affair than all of the rest, and did all in his power to aid the distressed ones until they were placed under medical care. The ice cream in question was made at Black Hawk, and we are assured was thought perfectly devoid of harm by the maker, until he found his error.

——We were yesterday shown by Mr. Tadder, of Russell Gulch, a specimen brick from his Sangamo mine, in the shape of a piece of fine retort, worth thirteen hundred and forty dollars. The Sangamo lode is a recent discovery, made sometime this spring, by Mr. T. The amount spoken of was the result of crushing three cords of the ores, taken from the shaft, and is the second yield yet realized since its opening The shaft is now about twenty feet deep, we believe.—From these indications it may be safe to conclude that the Sangamo will ere long claim a place among the first mines of the Territory. The Walter E. Louton is the title of another new, and equally promising lode. This was discovered but a few weeks since, and is now worked at a depth of only twelve feet. Mr. Tadder is also the fortunate possessor of this, by right of discovery.—But one run has been made from its ores, as yet, and that more for a test than for profit, we learn, He reports that seven-eighths of a cord were run through Mr Tadder's mill, from which he obtained $832,00, Treasury note value The New Boston lode is also a new discovery in this district, which is said to be paying well, as far as worked Mr. Thatcher is the discoverer of this We have no authentic reports from the owners of the New Boston property, but learn that the ores at the first crushing, yielded as high as $200 per cord, in fine gold These are but few of the many good reports which are daily coming in of late from the Russell gulch district—We are reliably informed that the various banks of the Territory, have purchased more gold from this region within the past few days than from any other in the Territory

——Mrs Sinclair and Mrs Curtis have opened a millinery establishment, a short distance below James E Lyon & Co.'s place on Lawrence street, at which they are offering for sale the neatest goods ever offered in their line, in the mountains They are ladies of excellent taste, and those who patronize them may be sure of getting something nice. The ladies say their style of getting up hats is perfectly delightful 8

Grant's Opinion on the Result of the War

If I can get hold of those rifles and shot guns any that big stock of revolvers and ammunition, and everything else in the fire arms line, and lots of other articles that are kept by that gun man in Central, I can soon wind this war up
Come on Grant, you or any one else, can have them, and my own prices to keep the guns in order. Hurry up and get your choice—lots of other articles outside the gun line—mining tools, &c. JOHN DAY,

HOFFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge
Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.
I do this more readily in regard to Hoffland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many Preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart Bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.
This class of bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Spirits of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death Beware of them.
For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt Get One bottle Hoffand's German Bitters, and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of HOFLAND'S BITTERS in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS AND FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS,

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army, to the fact that "Hoofland's German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be seen that a very large proportion are suffering from debility Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that if these bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved, that otherwise will be lost
We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters"
PHILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862.
Messrs Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hooflands German Bitters have saved my life. There is no mistake about it. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names have been appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of the case I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated Battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be, and retain a spark of vitality For a week or more, I was scarcely able to swallow anything; but if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.
I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under such circumstances and accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederich Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commence taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being able to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.
Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.
We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone restored to health.

Eureka Gulch, - - - - Central City.

HENDRIE & BUTLER, Proprietors.

MINERS, MILL OWNERS, and the Public generally are hereby respectfully informed that this establishment is now fully supplied with material a all kinds required for mountain work, and prepared t fill all orders for

CAST OR WROUGHT IRON WORK.

Their trains from the Missouri river keep them constantly supplied with

IRON AND COAL, of the Best Quality.

When from low water or frontier disturbances, it is found impracticable or unsafe to rely upon the Missouri river for transportation, they have trains constantly freighting across Iowa, from the terminus of the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad to Council Bluffs and Plattsmouth, whence shipments are made to this point by their own trains These arrangements insure a

Full Supply, at All Seasons, Without Fail.

During the past summer, they have much more than DOUBLED the capacity of their establishment, having erected a

NEW MACHINE SHOP

twenty four by fifty feet, two stories high, into which they are preparing to place a new

Steam Engine, of Twenty-Five Horse Power

They have also recently obtained a new and greatly improved

IRON PLANING MACHINE,

with which they will be enabled to make or repair machinery with an accuracy heretofore unattained, nd with great rapidity

In addition to this, they havey have also added to their machinery new

Drill Presses, Screw Cutters, Lathes, &c.

All of the very latest and most approved patents—such as are in use in the best Machine-Shops in the Eastern cities With their new machinery in full operation, they will be enabled to execute all work in their line in a manner

By any establishment west of St Louis, Mo

They have also greatly enlarged the capacity of the FOUNDERY, so that they are now prepared to make THE LARGEST CASTINGS required for Quartz Mills or any kind of machinery in use in this Territory

Particular attention will be given to the manufacture of

FREIBURG PANS.

They are prepared to cast any number of these pans on short notice, of the best material, and in the most satisfactory manner All persons desiring these pans are invited to call and examine their work, material, and prices, before ordering elsewhere.

Such are their present facilities, that any description of

required in this country can be manufactured and delivered in any part of the Territory,

from the time the order for the same is received here.

The senior member of the firm is proprietor of two other extensive foundries and machine shops—one at Council Bluffs, and the other at Burlington, Iowa. This establishment, therefore, has facilities for supplying the wants of this Territory possessed by no other in the country, as any article which it is inconvenient to manufacture here can be immediately forwarded by their trains from the other foundries.

Mr BUTLER, whose personal attention is given to the business at this point, has made it his constant study for three years past to ascertain and supply the wants of Miners and Mill Owners in his[illegible] None but THE BEST WORKMEN are employed, and the strictest attention is given to every department.

MILL STAMPS AND SHOES

Always on hand, and warranted of the best material

The shoes for Quartz Mill Stamps manufactured at Council Bluffs, are confessedly the best and most durable in use in the mountains They are made of superior iron, and chilled by a new process. A full suppl will be kept constantly on hand.

Particular attention is given to the Building of

STEAM ENGINES

FOR HOISTING ORE AND WATER FROM SHAFTS.

Several of these engines are now in use here, and others are in process of construction.

REPAIRING.

Machinery of all kinds repaired on short notice, in a workmanlike manner, and on reasonable terms,

ONE HUNDRED TONS FREIGHT

Now on the road between the Mississippi River and this point, including

FIVE STEAM ENGINES,

MILL STAMPS AND SHOES,

CASTINGS OF VARIOUS KINDS,

AND WROUGHT IRON WORK

Of every description. Arrangements have been perfected by which they will hereafter be kept constantly supplied.

Thankful for the generous patronage heretofore bestowed, the proprietors are determined, by fair dealing, excellence of work, and strict attention to business, to merit a continuance of public favor.

WHEELER'S

Amalgamating & Separating Pans.

It is acknowledged by all who have examined the principles and witnessed the operation of these pans, that they are decidedly superior for triturating and amalgamating purposes to any other in use. The most important principle connected with these Pans, is the separation of

THE TRITURATING PROCESS

From that Extracting the Amalgum From the Sand.

The chief cause of the loss of the precious metal arises from the passing off of the same in combination with the Quicksilver, during the process of trituration and in cleaning up By the introduction of the SEPARATING PAN to follow the triturating this loss is entirely avoided. In working these machines there is appreciable, and hence none of the precious metals Where these pans have been introduced and operated by the side of others on sands from the same vat,

NO LOSS OF QUICKSILVER,

THE WHEELER PANS

Have uniformly gained a large percentage of metal, over their competitors, as well as a still larger percentage in the amount of work performed.

J. WENTZ WILSON, of Black Hawk,

PROPOSALS.

OFFICE COMMISSARY OF SUBSISTENCE, DENVER, C. T., June 15th, 1864.

SEALED Proposals will be received at this office until 2 o'clock, p. m., September 1st, 1864 for all the

FLOUR AND BEANS

required by the Subsistence Department at Denver, Colorado Territory, for One Year, or such less time as the Commissary General of Subsistence may direct—Contract commencing on the 1st day of November, 1864. Amount of flour estimated at 4,000 barrels, beans at 40,000 pounds, but liable to be more or less as the exigencies of the service may require

The flour must be of first quality, extra superfine Saint Louis or other equivalent brands in good sound sacks containing one-half barrel each net weight. The beans must be of a good and wholesome quality, free from dust or dirt, in good sound sacks of any convenient size (regardless of weight) actual tare to be deducted for sacks

The stores must be delivered at such times and in such quantities as the U. S. may direct, and subject (in the absence of any authorized Government inspector) to his inspection and approval. Payment for the same to be made on delivery, in such funds as the United States may furnish for the purpose

Proposals will be received for each article separately, but for no part of either. Bidders should state the price per barrel for flour and the price per pound for beans

Bidders will be required to attach a printed copy of this advertisement to each of their proposals, and will be held to a strict compliance with the terms thereof.

Each bid to have considered must contain the written guaranty of at least two responsible sureties as follows.

We the undersigned hereby guaranty that should the above bid be accepted it shall be duly fulfilled according to its true purport and conditions; also that a written contract with bonds to the amount of twenty five thousand dollars for the flour contract and two thousand dollars for the bean contract, shall be executed when required.

(N. B. Here write the signatures in full of sureties, also county and state of residence.)

In case the parties to bids are unknown to the undersigned, then the certificate of any Commissary of Subsistence or commanding officer of the district or department where the parties reside shall be deemed sufficient evidence of their good faith, loyalty and responsibility.

Proposals from contractors who have previously failed to comply with their bids, to all contracts, from disloyal persons or those interested in more than one bid for each article, will not be considered.

The contract to be subject to the approval of the Chief C. S., Department of Kansas, the Supervising C. S. at St. Louis, Mo., and the Commissary General of Subsistence, U. S. A.

Proposals must be in duplicate, addressed to the undersigned and endorsed "Proposals for Flour" or "Beans" as the case may be

Any further information required, will be cheerfully given by application to the undersigned. Care should be used in writing names and address plainly, that no trouble may ensue.

OUR TICKET.

OF ILLINOIS.

ANDREW JOHNSON,

OF TENNESSEE.

Query.

We would like to ask that portion of the opponent of the State movement who style themselves Democrats and especially those who supported Douglas in 1860 what has become of the zeal for self-government which at that time, gave vitality to their whole policy? How comes it that to be under Federal domination was so hateful to Democratic ideas therein, yet so agreeable now that they prefer it to a government in which they would have a voice or a vote? What has become of of the laudations of the rights and privileges that belong to citizens, to make their own laws, settle their domestic affairs in their own way and to enjoy all the rights of American citizens with which their journals then teemed? Have their rights become less valuable or Federal rule so much more endurable as that, they now prefer a situation which they then denounced as one depriving them of their dearest rights and most estimable privileges? Do they love a Territorial government less that they now prefer to remain in the condition they then denominated serfdom to that of the free and independent one offered by a State organization? If a territorial government were unnatural and to the American mind a distasteful one in 1860, is it not equally so now? And if the rights demanded for the people then were so sacred and important as to call for a radical change in the Territorial policy of the government, are they not too important and sacred now to be rejected and ignored? And yet these men now prefer to reject the opportunity offered them of enjoying these rights simply and solely for the reason that they fear their taxes will be increased thereby. The right of the elective franchise is to be weighed against a dollar of taxes, the right of representation whenever taxes are to be imposed, a right which laid at the foundation of the Revolutionary struggle is to be waived in favor of light taxes, in short every privilege that distinguishes the American citizen from the subject of other governments, goes for naught in the minds of these men when balanced against the fear of taxation. We are free to admit that a Territorial government is peculiarly distasteful to the American mind and apparently inconsistent with the theory of our government, yet as the territories belong exclusively to the people of the United States, we see no other course than the one now adopted. At the same time, justice to the people to whom they belong can require nothing more than a government by their representatives while we remain a Territory—while justice to ourselves, respect for the right and privileges of citizens, and devotion to the best interests of both the general government and ourselves, must impel us to throw off the Territorial and assume the State Government as soon as we legally may. At this point we have now arrived and the question about to be submitted is whether we value the privilege we have so often lauded, whether we regard it as a privilege to choose our own rulers and be recognized as constituents of the government under which we live or whether we prefer to renounce all these, on the ground of poverty. Whether we will support ourselves and do what we can to support the government, or whether we will remain a weight and a burden upon the government, which in its liberality would give us rights as a State, equal to those enjoyed by New York, or any of the states. Shall we, when this offer is made stand back and say to a government already struggling with burdens and debts incurred in the protection of ourselves, we prefer to remain as we are, because by so doing we throw all our burdens upon you and escape the expenses of a government of our own? We do not believe that the people of this Territory are [illegible], and we are confident no true Democrat will seek to oppose the privileges offered against the slight tax to be incurred.

S. S. Convention.—Full reports of this meeting will be given this week, the telegraph reports crowding them out this morning. The meeting of yesterday was of deep interest and promise to be much more so to-day.—Exercises suited to the the children occur this afternoon. Pic-nic to-morrow at Westoner's ranch. Children of Central meet at Washington Hall at half-past seven o'clock in the morning.

[illegible] weeks ago a flock of large birds of [illegible] appearance alighted from a [illegible] at Burlington Bay, near [illegible] in Upper Canada. It was found that they were pelicans, all the way from the shores of the Gulf, or the lower [illegible] of the Mississippi. These birds have often been killed as far up the Mississippi as Keokuk, in Iowa, but their appearance in Canada is very unusual. Another [illegible] has been shot at Girondine, Canada. It was the glossy ibis, found in Mexico, Florida, and California, but seldom seen at the North.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Reported expressly for the Miners' Register, at Central City, per Pacific Telegraph Line.

We here republish the report contained in our issue of yesterday afternoon for the benefit of those of our readers who did not receive it at that time. It also will be found to connect with, and be essential to the correct understanding of last night's report.

Washington, June 8th.

It is decided by the Internal Revenue bureau, that with the exception of transportation of domestic distilled spirits in bonded warehouses will soon be removed, but only on the payment of internal revenue duty at the rate of $1,50 per gallon. The transportation bond prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, under the act of March may be used for the removal of spirits—coal oil and tobacco under sixty first section of June last.

It is understood that Gen. Howe, of the chief artillery, department at Washington has been ordered to command the forces in front of the rebels in Maryland, vice Siegel who is ordered to report to Hunter.

New York, 8th.

Gen. Stanford received instructions not to issue orders to any of our city regiments to repel rebel invasion. It is reported to-day that the rebels have retreated from Maryland, which gave increased confidence to the money market. Certificates advanced one fourth, and gold which opened firm at 270, gradually declined to 69.

World's Headquarters correspondent of the 6th says, it is not permitted to speak freely of the preparations of the past week for renewing offensive operations in this locality. The next few days may witness some efforts more sanguinary, and perhaps more fruitful than the siege.

Washington special of the same paper, says indications are that active movements on a large scale will not be attempted for a week or two.

Frederick, Md, 8th.

No fighting to-day, except picket firing, feeling the position of the rebels in Middletown valley, holding the road to Hagerstown, which crosses Catoctin mountain.—The force there is estimated at 5,000, and since the arrival of Gen. Wallace here, business has resumed, and the people seem confident there is no danger of the post.

New York, 8th

The Express gives currency to a rumor, that Gen. Dix in obedience to orders from Lincoln won't appear in civil process instituted against him before Judge Russell, for closing the Journal and World, and for arresting the Editors. As at present advised says the Express, 'tis between Gov. Seymour, and will if necessary, after showing the powerlessness of civil courts to call on the State militia to aid in executing the process of the court, if it should issue a warrant for the arrest of Gen. Dix, and its execution would be resisted.

Semmes' official report of the fight with the Kearsarge says, within 10 or 15 minutes from the commencement the fight, became very hot, and the enemy's shot and shells soon began to tell on our hull, knocking down and killing a number of men in different parts of the ship; and perceiving that our shells, though hitting, did but little execution—resort was had to solid shot, alternating with shell, and after an hour and forty minutes, our ship was ascertained to be in a sinking condition, the enemy's shells having exploded in our sides between the decks, and opened a large aperture, through which the water rushed with great rapidity.

I had hopes of being able to reach the coast, for which purpose I gave the ship all speed and set fore and aft sails as available. The ship filled so rapidly before we made much progress that the fires were extinguished, and we were evidently sinking. I now hauled down the colors to prevent further destruction of life and sent boats to the enemy to inform them of our condition. He says the Kearsarge fired upon him five times after the colors were struck.

Speaking of comparative strength, he says the Kearsarge is heavier than the Alabama. The former is armored by double rows of chains slung along the sides and could have withstood the firing of the Alabama all day.

New York, 5th.

LaFrance says the Kearsage on returning to Cherbourg on Sunday afternoon landed sixty-five of the crew of the Alabama. Fifteen men wounded.

The Paris correspondent of the Commercial says, Capt Winslow still claims Semmes as a prisoner, making it a personal question between officer and owner. The men were released on parole never to fight against the U. S.

Capt. Winslow did fire after the flag was hoisted, but it was owing to its not being seen.

Novascotian, Liverpool, 27th

There was a final meeting of the conference on the 25th. It was purely formal and the war was recommenced. Prussia sent an order to Marshal Wrangle to recommence hostilities on the 24th. A speedy attack on Alsen Island was expected.

The Paris Tempest gives a report of two confederate cruisers off Cherbourg watching for the Kearsage.

New York, 9th.

The Herald's special of the 8th says that the enemy continued to press Col Clendon very hard yesterday and finally flanked him just as the old Maryland Infantry came to his support, they all fell back in disorder.

Herald's special from headquarters says that deserters are pouring into our lines. They also say that the siege of Petersburg is not unlike that of Vicksburg. The army and population of the city is about 200,000. The people are to be fed in the two cities, as the rebel government has to feed or get rid of them, as the siege cannot last long.

The Tribune's Washington specials say a strong pressure is being brought to bear upon the government in regard to the pirate Semmes and crew picked up by the Deer Hound, and that Seward will resist the pressure.

The World's special says that the Government in order to avoid the issue with Gov. Seymour will quietly remove Dix to another department.

Washington, 9,

The President issued a proclamation approving of the plan for the reconstruction of the seceded states adopted by Congress at the close of session.

The plan in substance is as follows:

The bill provides for the appointment of a provisional Governor for each of the rebel states with pay and emoluments of a Brigadier General. Such Governor as soon as military resistance to the United States shall be suppressed in such state, and the people thereof shall have sufficiently returned to their allegiance to the constitution and laws is to direct the U. S. Marshal to enroll all the male citizens and residents in such state and require of them the oath of allegiance.

In case a majority of the persons shall have taken the oath provisioned, the Governor, shall by proclamation invite all the loyal people of the state to a convention for the re-establishment of a state government. Citizens in the military service will be allowed to vote for delegates at their headquarters. No person who has held office or voluntarily borne arms under rebel usurpation will be allowed to vote for delegates or as a delegate to such constitutional convention.

The convention is required to declare the submission of a state to the constitution and laws of the U. S., and to incorporate in it a constitutional provision disfranchising all who have held office, except merely ministerial or military below the grade of Colonel under usurped power.

A provision shall be incorporated prohibiting involuntary servitude, and guaranteeing universal freedom also, forbidding the recognition or payment of any debt created or sanctioned by the usurped power.

The people of the state are to vote for or against the constitution so framed, which, if adopted shall be certified to by the President, who, after obtaining the assent of Congress, shall recognize the government so established.

Senators and Representatives be chosen from date of such recognition and not before. Convention shall be dissolved if it refuses to establish a state government on the above conditions, but another may be subsequently formed, in the same manner until the recognition of the United States. Provisional government in each State is to see the execution of the U. S. laws, and those of state before it went into rebellion, save those in relation to slavery which shall not be enforced. Until recognition a provisional Government is to assess and levy taxes as they were required to be levied in last fiscal year before the rebellion. All persons held in involuntary servitude in the rebel States are declared forever free, and if restrained of liberty hereafter, to be discharged on Habeas Corpus. Persons connected with restraining them to be punished by a heavy fine and imprisonment. Every person hereafter holding except those merely ministerial or below grade colonel declared not citizens of the United States.

New York, 9th.

Reports concerning the rebel raid into Maryland are indefinite and very contradictory. Dispatch to day says the rebels are still in large force around Frederick. Philadelphia telegram says dispatches from Baltimore received stating that the rebels occupy Frederick, and that our troops had fallen back to Monocacy. Other dispatches confirm this and say the rebels are 12000 strong under Breckinridge. Other reports seemingly well founded, say that another rebel force crossed the Potomac at Edwards' Ferry and moved in direction of Urbana, in what force not known. This is supposed to be an effort to flank us. We are daily gaining strength by reinforcements.

Washington, 9th.

Official dispatches from Gen. Wallace, state that the rebels are between Washington and Tunnell Town 40,000 strong under Breckinridge. He reports that his forces had an engagement with the enemy commencing at 9 o clock and continuing until five, when our forces at length overpowered by superior numbers of the enemy and were forced to retreat in disorder. Brig Gen. Tyler was taken prisoner. The enemy's force is 20,000. Our troops behaved well but suffered severe loss. He is retreating towards Baltimore.

STANTON

Baltimore 10th.

General Wallace has been gradually falling back, since yesterday, the rebels following. The city was startled this morning at six, by the ringing of bells, which accompanied the Mayor's and Governor's proclamations calling on the citizens to organize in defense of the city interests.—Companies were formed at every street corner. The proclamation declares that danger is menacing the city, and that preparations to repel the invasion must be made immediately. Gen'l Lockwood has volunteered to take charge of all civil forces raised, and has been assigned the command.

Baltimore 10th A. M.

Later accounts from the front say our forces have fallen back to the vicinity of Monocacy, having burned the turnpike bridge over that stream.

Troops engaged in the fight at Monocacy bridge yesterday, formed in line of battle on the left of the railroad, on this side, and on the right on the other side. Two other regiments were thrown out as skirmishers. The latter were attacked at half past seven in the morning by cavalry from the Hagerstown road, when they fell back across the river in good order and with little loss, fighting all the way. After crossing, they succeeded in checking the advance of the enemy and held him there a long time.—Ten desperate attacks were made by dismounted cavalry which were repulsed and notwithstanding this repulse they tried to dislodge our men from their position, but did not succeed. Their loss here was very heavy.

Philadelphia 10th.

A Chambersburg special dispatch to-day says General Couch's cavalry advance entered Hag. town yesterday, capturing 200 rebels engaged in plundering. Quite a number of buildings have been burned—The rebels, if possible, were more severe upon secesh than upon unionists, levying contributions everywhere. In consequence of this move of General Couch, McAusland's Rebel band retreated along the Williamsport and Sharpsburg road. Heavy firing heard last night in the direction of Harpers Ferry, indicating a brisk engagement going on between Sigel and a portion of the raiders.

Baltimore 6, P M. 10th.

Intelligence reached here that a portion of Hunter's force recaptured Martinsburg, taking 1000 prisoners; also all stores captured there and plunder collected by the rebels at that point.

Baltimore 9th, 10, A.M.

Excitement intense. Wallace continues to fall back towards the city. Parties with drum and fife are constantly moving through the city to the breastworks. Rebel scouts have been sent within 15 miles of the city. At last accounts General Wallace was 21 miles of the city, falling back, with a force of fresh troops guarding his rear. His artillery is reported to have been destroyed.

LAST NIGHT'S REPORT.

The Times' special of midnight, says in consequence of the interrupted telegraphic communication between Washington and Fortress Monroe, nothing is received from Grant to-day.

Hon. John Covode returned yesterday from a visit to the Headquarters. Had several interviews with Grant, who he says don't attach much importance to the rebel raid, as he didn't believe Lee would detach any considerable force from the front of the Union lines before Petersburg.

Herald's special of last night says, from the latest information it appears that Breckinridge crossed above Harper's Ferry, and operated at leisure west of South Mountain with a view of drawing our forces in that direction, to enable Early with his main body to cross Edward's Ferry, so as to flank and capture our command, advancing on Breckinridge with the whole rebel force united this side of Frederick, and commence operating on our lines of communication to and from Baltimore.

Cavalry are coming to-day from Leesburg. Saw no rebels. A few guerillas were about Fairfax.

New York, July 11th.

Fire this morning destroyed the steamer John M. Potter and pier No. 1 North river. The property burned is valued at a quarter of a million.

A dispatch dated near Petersburg of the 7th, says the enemy was discovered erecting a fort in front of our left and centre. A battery of thirty-two pounders recently placed in position opened upon them from the line of the 5th corps. This suspended all operations at that point. All day our guns bellowed forth their thunders and were answered by rebel cannon. Most of their shots fell short.

Richmond and Petersburg papers of the 6th are jubilant over the excitement they anticipate of their raids in Maryland. No intimation is given of the number of troops detached from Lee's army, or by whom commanded.

Baltimore, 11th.

Rebel cavalry burned the residence of Gov. Bradford, this a. m., four miles from the city. A squad of rebels came to the house and ordered out the family, who were only permitted to take out a few valuables.

Harrisburg, 11th

The Philadelphia, Baltimore and Wilmington roads are still intact this morning. A telegram from Glenrock on the northern central road, this morning, states that a body of rebels, mounted infantry and cavalry 12 or 15 hundred strong, are destroying the road 15 miles south of that place, and marching northward. The rebels appear to have retired from western, Maryland, and are conconcentrating to the northern and eastern part of the state.

Philadelphia, 11th.

A special bulletin from Baltimore says there is nothing reliable about movements. Rebel sympathisers are believed to be at the bottom of the business.

In the Governor's mansion business is transacted as usual. Citizens and soldiers are on duty in fortifications.

The telegraph lines that cross the Susquehanna at Port Deposit, Maryland, have been cut. Other wires along the railroad are all right.

Later—The break in the telegraph lines is understood to be at Magnolia 17 miles this side of Baltimore, and 19 miles from Havre de Grace between Rush and Gunpowder Rivers.

Later.—Philadelphia 11th.—A train was captured at Magnolia which left Baltimore at 8 oclock. Magnolia Station is burned. It is feared that a train from Philadelphia is also captured.

Washington 11th.

The war department issued an order constituting the troops of the department of North Carolina, and Virginia serving with the Army of the Potomac, as the 18th army corps under the command of Smith. Gen. Butler is to command the remainder of the troops of that department with his headquarters at Fort Monroe. Maj Gen. Reynolds is assigned to the command of the 19th corps as reorganized. This arrangement is not to affect Gen. Banks' position as commander of the department of the Gulf.

New York 11th.

Sec'y Fessenden has arrived here, it is said, to negotiate a loan with the banks for 175,000,000 for immediate use of the treasury.

Arrangements have been made to receive news from Baltimore and Washington by boat from Baltimore to Perryville. The Commercial gives the following dispatches,—they are given for what they are worth:

Philadelphia, 11th

The telegraph between here and Baltimore is said to be interrupted, but we have just received a report that the combined forces of Hunter and Wallace are fighting and driving the rebels. The 19th corps, Baily Smith's, arrived this morning.

Baltimore 11th.

The 19th army corps from New Orleans arrived.

New York, 11.

Dispatches received say that after burning several vessels off Cape Hatteras on Saturday, the Florida stood in a north easterly direction.

The Herald's New Orleans correspondent of July 7th says that a force of rebels have been raiding upon the plantations near Lake St. Joseph between Vicksburg and Natchez. The plantations were robbed of stock, farming implements, &c. An order has been issued sending all registered enemies beyond the lines.

Liverpool 27th (ult)

The Prussians re-commenced attacking Alsen fortifications on Sunday.

Cairo 11.

A cavalry force sent from Vicksburg on on the 1st under Gen Slough on a scouting expedition to Jackson, had a skirmish with the rebels on the Fourth, in which he had several men killed. The enemy was repulsed with severe loss. The main portion of Forrest's forces have been transferred to Virginia.

The government of Spain is about to erect a statute in Madrid to Christopher Columbus. It will be built in "paseo Recoletas" in front of the Royal Treasury. The statute will be of bronze, from twenty-five to thirty feet in height, elevated with a pedestal sixteen feet high. Three of the sides of the pedestal will be adorned with bas reliefs, representing the incidents of the first transatlantic voyage of Columbus, and the fourth side will bear an inscription to be dictated by the Royal Academy of History. It is understood that the competition for the commission will be open to sculptors of all nations, and would be singularly appropriate should American genius win the prize, and the name of an American be associated with the statute to be raised in honor of the discoverer of America.

The last rail of the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad was laid at Dayton on Tuesday of last week. The line is now completed, and forms the connecting link between New York and St. Louis, a distance of twelve hundred miles, without change of gauge.

The Legislature of New Jersey have voted the proceeds of the United States Agricultural College land grant to the organization of an agricultural department in connection with Rutgers College, at New Brunswick.

The original press at which Benjamin Franklin worked, Cox & Wyman have presented to the Patent Museum in London. This press was for many years in their printing office in Great Queen street, and it is even believed that Franklin worked in that office, which is the oldest established printing house in London.

Restoring Old Paintings.—Professor Pettenkofer of Munich, has patented the following method of restoring old and cracked oil paintings. The picture is exposed in a flat case, lined with metal, to an atmosphere saturated with vapor of alcohol at the ordinary temperature, which vapor is absorbed by the resinous particles of the picture to the point of saturation. The different molecules thus "reacquire cohesion with each other, and the optical effect of the original is restored solely by self action, the picture not getting touched at all."—Other substances besides alcohol, such as wood naptha, ether, sulphuric and other ethers, turpentine, petroleum, benzine, etc., may be used.

There are now in the British Islands three hundred and seventy-five distinct railway companies, who own eleven thousand five hundred miles of road. They carry above eighty million passengers yearly, and above thirty million tons of merchandise and minerals. They give employment to probably not less than two hundred thousand persons.

UNITED STATES TAXES

PUBLIC NOTICE

U. S. Assessor's Office, Denver, Ter. of Col. July 5th, 1864.

Notice is hereby given that the lists, valuations and enumerations, made and taken in the County of Gilpin Territory of Colorado, by Geo. W. Jacobs, the assistant assessor thereof, will be open for

PUBLIC EXAMINATION,

At the office of said Jacobs, in Central City, for fifteen days from and after the date hereof. Notice is further given that I will, on the 18th day of July, A. D. 1864, at the hour of 10 o'clock, a. m., at the office of said Jacobs in said county, receive, hear, and determine according to law and right, such appeals as may be made to me relative to any erroneous or excessive valuations or enumerations that may have been made in said County, by said Assistant Assessor.

All appeals must be made in writing, and must specify the particular cause, matter, or thing, respecting which a decision is requested, and must, moreover, state the ground or principle of inequality or error complained of. When thus prepared they must be filed with the Assistant Assessor of the division in which the tax was assessed, on or before the day appointed above for hearing appeals.

☞ T. G. Storer is our authorized Agent to collect and receipt for all moneys due the Register, in [illegible] Quartz Hill, and vicinity

☞ S. S. Lamdan is our authorized Agent and Carrier of the Register in Mountain City, Black Hawk, North Clear Creek, and Chase Gulch. He will solicit and receive Advertisements and Job Work, collect and receipt for moneys due this office, &c.

☞ Blanks of every description are printed neatly and quickly, at the Register Office, and as cheaply as at any other printing establishment in the Territory. Correct forms of the following blanks are kept constantly on hand and for sale: Warranty Deeds, Trust Deeds, Quitclaim Deeds, Real Estate Mortgages, Chattel Mortgages, Pre-emption Blanks, Territorial Warrants, Summons, Subpœnas, Attachment Bonds, Writs, and Affidavits, Replevin Bonds, Writs and Affidavits Appeal Bonds, and Vouchers

—Job wagons are seemingly plenty in town. Miles Patten with his Pioneer Express still holds the reins of unmistakable supremacy among them all, however.

☞ The transportation train of the Army of the Potomac would make a line of wagons sixty-two and a half miles in length, according to Gen. Meade

—The ever jovial Deaton Walker is once more among us reveling in the enjoyments of mountain life, as gaily, and looking as finely as an elephant in the country of the Lilliputians

—Among the distinguished arrivals last night we have the pleasure to announce that of Judge Gorsline, just returned from New York City, where he has been spending the winter —On the 10th of June the Crystal Palace has been opened ten years. During that period it has been visited by the extraordinary number of more than fifteen millions and a quarter of persons

—Parties with a taste for descriptive, will await anxiously for the appearance of the colossal advertisement of the Star Emporium in to-morrow's Register. A press of work is our apology to Mr. Lutz for its nonappearance this morning

—We are pleased to announce as an instance of prosperity in the mining firm of Cook and Kimball the fact that the number of blank vouchers, receipts, and other blanks printed for them far exceeds that of any other company in the mountains. This is indicative of business, we take it —The Professor, of the News, chronicles the approaching end of the colossal batch of telegraphic report upon the venerable back of the pied ox, direct from Omaha. When these come, that sheet will furnish to its readers the reliable news, late and lengthy. We have no doubt their patrons await anxiously its coming.

—Geo E Wilson, we are glad to learn, is the successor of Mr G W. Jacobs in the office of U. S. District Collector. Mr Jacobs lately resigned the position. We are confident that George will fill the place as well as any one among us, and are glad to hear of his appointment

—We are pleased to know that the roads to Empire are again in order, and that travel to and fro can be resumed The road past Fall river has been impassable for vehicles since the late freshets, and Empire people have sorely felt the inconvenience of this state of affairs, until now. Mr. Love is making his regular trips again with the tri-weekly express,

—The great play of Uncle Tom's Cabin was the wonder of the immense audience who assembled at its first production, last night. It was decidedly successful, in every particular, having been put upon the stage with all the skill and care for which Messrs. Langrishe and Dougherty are justly celebrated. We may speak more at length of the various particulars hereafter. Go and witness it again to-night.

—From our Kansas City exchanges we learn of the rapid and vigorous work on the Eastern terminus of the Pacific Railroad. Guerillas are becoming more numerous, and their raids more disastrous in that region and on the borders of Kansas, of late The Journal tells of a great scare at Leavenworth, very similar to that enjoyed by the citizens of Denver at the time of the recent Indian depredations Guerillas were said to be surrounding the town, and the militia were enrolling themselves as rapidly as possible. Kansas and Missouri are both cursed with a large and growing copperhead population, a great portion of whom are the direct commissaries of Jeff. Davis, sent there to fill the places of the Union men who have been driven from their homes by Quantrell This element is a most dangerous one to these two States While yet it is comparatively small it should be stifled Their programme is plainly to drive out the leading Union men from any particular locality, and thus intimidate the weaker class, whose fidelity to the Union combines with their fear of the rebels, and causes them to desert their homes by dozens. In their stead will gather the long subjected copperheads, from all the country round, and thus in their united strength they bid defiance to the lawful and the peace loving citizens. Beware, ye loyal men; the now dormant snakes only await the warmth of a little freedom, when they will rise and crush you.

Twenty cases Hostetter's and Plantation bitters at J. P. Henry's

—After a protracted dearth of telegraphic news, we are again favored with a batch of reports, long, doubtful and varied, as far as pertains to reliability or truth.—They are interesting, to a line, however, and will bear a careful reading. From the tenor of a portion of them, a good copperhead, or a staunch rebel sympathizer might manage to draw inferences unfavorable to the Union cause, but we have every confidence in the speedy turning of rumor's weathercock to indicate a blowing in the opposite direction. Grant isn't a sardine, we take it.

—Louis & North invite attention to their variety of clothing and gentlemen's goods, fresh from the eastern markets, cheap, beautiful and durable. Their stock is large and varied, comprising goods for all classes, and to suit all

—Claret Wine, of excellent quality, just received at Massard's Drug Store, next door to the Post Office. j12 3t

—Mrs Sinclair and Mrs. Curtis have opened a millinery establishment, a short distance below James E. Lyon & Co's place on Lawrence street, at which they are offering for sale the neatest goods ever offered in their line, in the mountains They are ladies of excellent taste, and those who patronize them may be sure of getting something nice. The ladies say their style of getting up hats is perfectly delightful 6

—We have just received at our Central City house a good stock of No. 1, Bourbon whiskey, gin and brandy, for sale either by the gallon, half barrel or barrel

—Twenty cases assorted bottled liquors at J. P. Henry's

Lost —A gold sleeve button, large size, with letter "G" on the face. Any person returning the same to this office will be liberally rewarded j9tf

—Five barrels No 1 brandy at J. P. Henry's.

—Mr [illegible], at Black Hawk, has just received a fine lot of wagon material from the states; the best Chicago timber, spokes, axletrees and tongues, which are to be found at the Black Hawk Blacksmith and wagon shop of Sebree & Leitzman, where they do up work in double quick, and in the best and most substantial manner. j7d1w

—Twenty good stone masons wanted immediately. Good wages and ready pay Apply at the express office, Central, or at John Armor's ranch, North Clear Creek.
July 7. P. Tallett.

—Just received at J. P. Henry's the largest and best stock of wines and liquors ever brought to the mountains which he offers to the trade cheap for cash. Also, a complete stock of groceries 6,1w

Lost —Somewhere between the Post Office and the junction of Eureka Gulch, a purse containing $52 50 in greenbacks — one $20, $10 and a two and the rest in small change. The finder will confer a favor by returning the same to this office.

HOFFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev J Newton Brown, D D, Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart Bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed

This class of bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Spirits of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death. Beware of them.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One bottle Hoofland's German Bitters, and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation, that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less You will have all the virtues of HOOFLAND'S BITTERS in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you

AND FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army, to the fact that "Hoofland's German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be seen that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved, that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters:"

Philadelphia, August [illegible]

Messrs. Jones & Evans —Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters have saved my life. There is no mistake about it. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been, for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated Battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be, and retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more, I was scarcely able to swallow any thing; but if I did force a morsel down it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomache. Life could not last under such circumstances and accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them, the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being able to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr Malone restored to health.

EUREKA FOUNDERY

AND

Eureka Gulch, ... Central City.

HENDRIE & BUTLER, Proprietors.

MINERS, MILL OWNERS, and the Public generally are hereby respectfully informed that this establishment is now fully supplied with material of all kinds required for mountain work, and prepared to fill all orders for

CAST OR WROUGHT IRON WORK.

Their trains from the Missouri river keep them constantly supplied with

IRON AND COKE, of the Best Quality.

When from low water or frontier disturbances, it is found impracticable or unsafe to rely upon the Missouri river for transportation, they have trains constantly freighting across Iowa, from the terminus of the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad to Council Bluffs and Plattsmouth, whence shipments are made to this point by their own trains These arrangements insure a

Full Supply, at All Seasons, Without Fail

During the past summer, they have much more than DOUBLED the capacity of their establishment, having erected a

NEW MACHINE SHOP

twenty-four by fifty feet, two stories high, into which they are preparing to place a new

Steam Engine, of Twenty-Five Horse Power

They have also recently obtained a new and greatly improved

IRON PLANING MACHINE,

with which they will be enabled to make or repair machinery with an accuracy heretofore unattained, and with great rapidity

In addition to this, they havey have also added to their machinery now

Drill Presses, Screw Cutters, Lathes, &c.

All of the very latest and most approved patents—such as are in use in the best Machine-Shops in the Eastern cities With their new machinery in full operation, they will be enabled to execute all work in their line in a manner

By any establishment west of St - Louis, Mo

They have also greatly enlarged the capacity of the FOUNDERY, so that they are now prepared to make THE LARGEST CASTINGS required for Quartz Mills or any kind of machinery in use in this Territory

Particular attention will be given to the manufacture of

FREIBURG PANS.

They are prepared to cast any number of these pans on short notice, of the best material, and in the most satisfactory manner All persons desiring these pans are invited to call and examine their work, material, and prices, before ordering elsewhere

Such are their present facilities, that any description of

required in this country can be manufactured and delivered in any part of the Territory,

WITHIN SIXTY DAYS

from the time the order for the same is received here

The senior member of the firm is proprietor of two other extensive founderies and machine shops—one at Council Bluffs, and the other at Burlington, Iowa. This establishment, therefore, has facilities for supplying the wants of this Territory possessed by no other in the country, as any article which it is inconvenient to manufacture here can be immediately forwarded by their trains from the other founderies

Mr. BUTLER, whose personal attention is given to the business at this point, has made it his constant study for three years past to ascertain and supply the wants of Miners and Mill Owners in this . None but THE BEST WORKMEN are employed, and the strictest attention is given to every department

Always on hand, and warranted of the best material

The shoes for Quartz Mill Stamps manufactured at Council Bluffs, are confessedly the best and most durable in use in the mountains They are made of superior iron, and chilled by a new process.—A full suppl will be kept constantly on hand.

Particular attention is given to the Building of

STEAM ENGINES

FOR HOISTING ORE AND WATER FROM SHAFTS

Several of these engines are now in use here, and others are in process of construction.

REPAIRING.

Machinery of all kinds repaired on short notice, in a workmanlike manner, and on reasonable terms.

ONE HUNDRED TONS FREIGHT

Now on the road between the Mississippi River and this point, including

FIVE STEAM ENGINES,

MILL STAMPS AND SHOES,

CASTINGS OF VARIOUS KINDS,

AND WROUGHT IRON WORK

Of every description. Arrangements have been perfected by which they will hereafter be kept constantly supplied.

Thankful for the generous patronage heretofore bestowed, the proprietors are determined, by fair dealing, excellence of work, and strict attention to business, to merit a continuance of public favor

WHEELER'S

Amalgamating & Separating Pans.

It is acknowledged by all who have examined the principles and witnessed the operation of these pans, that they are decidedly superior for triturating and amalgamating purposes to any other in use The most important principle connected with these Pans, is the separation of

THE TRITURATING PROCESS

From that Extracting the Amalgum From the Sand

The chief cause of the loss of the precious metal arises from the passing off of the same in combustion with the Quicksilver, during the process of trituration and in cleaning up By the introduction of the SEPARATING PAN to follow the triturating this loss is entirely avoided In working these machines there is appreciable, and hence none of the precious metals Where these pans have been introduced and operated by the side of others on sands from the same vat,

NO LOSS OF QUICKSILVER,

THE WHEELER PANS

Have uniformly gained a large percentage of metal, over their competitors, as well as a still larger percentage in the amount of work performed

OUR TICKET.

ANDREW JOHNSON,

OF TENNESSEE.

The Copperhead press all through the country are crying for a change of policy and a removal of the party now in power. Now we will suppose this removal effected and the copperheads placed in power. What course will they pursue? We insist on an answer; if a change of policy is to be effected in what shall that change consist, and to what end conduce? What would these Cops do? Would they stop the war; if so how? Or would they go ahead even more vigorously than is now being done? Would they raise more men and by what means would they obtain them? If they could not procure volunteers would they resort to drafting, if not how then would they obtain them? Would they stop the war by withdrawing our forces from the rebel states, by raising the blockade, or by proposing an armistice? Would they acknowledge the independence of the South, or fight it out to the bitter end? In short what is their programme, what changes do they propose to make and who knows whether such changes may not be altogether hurtful? These are all pertinent questions and we have the right to insist upon a plain and unequivocal answer Shall we get it? Not at all—not a single state convention of these same Cops, has dared avow a policy, or even hint what they would do if now in power. The Convention which was to have met at Chicago on the 4th, has been postponed till the 29th of August solely because they dare not avow the policy they would pursue From the action of their men in Congress there is little doubt as to how they would act for they have repeatedly to a man voted against wise and necessary measures for the increase of the army and the provision of a revenue sufficient to make our currency what it ought—to be, and the tone of their journals shows how the peace-at-any-price-sneaks, control the press. Yet still they hesitate, and equivocate, and refuse to take a stand, crying good lord, and good devil, as will best suit the locality of the crier It may be that the people will consent to surrender the Ship of State into the hands of men who either dare not tell or do not know how and whither they would direct its course, when once committed to them, but we do not believe it. To induce us to change pilots, let them show us that it will be safer in other hands than in those who now control it

School Meeting—District No. 1.

A meeting of the qualified electors of School District No. one—Central City—was held at the Post Office Tuesday night. After voting a tax of three mills on the dollor for Teacher's fund, and two mills for School House fund and to carry on schools in the District for the next twelve months and transacting the regular business of the meeting, the question of jumping School Claims came up and was discussed with much feeling and interest by Messrs. Stearns, Rockwell, Wilder, Royle, Garbanati and others. The following resolution was offered and unanimously adopted.

Whereas, We deeply regret to learn that there are persons in this Territory to regardless of the general welfare as to jump for their own use the claims set apart by our Legislature for the use of schools.

Therefore, Resolved, that it is the unanimous expression of this meeting that those who have jumped the claims on the several Lodes which have been set apart for the benefit of Schools deserve and receive the condemnation and censure of the citizens of this District—that they are men who cannot or do not appreciate the value of an education, too lazy to work and prospect for themselves, but prefer hanging around the Recorder's Office and stealing the fund set apart for the benefit of their children, and that the same is unjust, rascally and unlawful.

After which a resolution was passed asking the co-operation of other School Districts in the County in urging upon the County Authorities the importance of prosecuting the occupants of all School Claims.

The meeting adjourned requesting the Register at Central City and Journal at Black Hawk to publish these proceedings.

Union Convention,

A Convention of the unconditional Union men of Colorado, consisting of two delegates for each member of the House of Representatives and Council, will be held in the League Hall at Denver, on Tuesday the 2d day of August 1864, at 2 o'clock, p m, for the offices of Governor, Lieut Governor, Secretary of State and Auditor, Treasurer, Atty. General, three Judges of the Supreme Court, Member of Congress, Delegate to Congress, Superintendent of Public Instruction and Librarian, and three candidates for Presidential Electors.

The Convention will be held for the purpose of nominating candidates for members of the House of Representatives and State senator—and appointing delegates to the Territorial Convention, as follows.—

The 3d. Council, 5th. House of Representatives, 2d. Council and 2d. Representative Districts. Convention and primary meetings will be held at such times and place as the Union Central Committee of the counties composing those Districts may designate.

The Conventions in all other Representative Districts will be held at the usual places on Saturday, the 23d day of July.

Where any Representative District forms a part of a Council District, such District Convention, will select one delegate for every two members of said Convention, to the Council District Convention, of which said District may be a part.

The 1st Council District Convention will meet at Burlington, Boulder county, at 2 o'clock p. m., on Saturday the 30th day of July.

The Convention for the 4th Council District, will be held at Golden City at 2 o'clock p m, on Saturday the 30th day of July.

The Convention for the 8th Council District, will meet at Pueblo on Wednesday the 27th day of July at 2 o'clock p m.

Primary meetings will be held at the usual places of holding elections in such precinct at 2 o'clock, p. m., on Wednesday the 21st day of July, and choose one delegate from each precinct, and ond one additional for every 100 votes, or fraction of 100 votes exceeding 50, cast in said Precinct at the general election held in September, 1863

TERRITORIAL CENTRAL COMMITTEE

REBEL BARBARITY —The Boston Journal says. "At the battle of Gettysburg, as we are informed by one who witnessed the incident, a wounded rebel fell near our lines. His moans and cries for water were piteous and excited the compassion of some of the members of a Massachusetts regiment — They attempted to relieve him, but found that the task would be perilous in consequence of the vigilance of some Arkansas sharpshooters who had effected a lodgment within a ledge at no great distance At length one of our men, unable to restrain his sympathy, threw down his musket, held up a canteen and called out to the Arkansas men, 'Now don't shoot; I'm going to give that poor fellow some water' He had nearly reached the wounded man when he was hit by a ball from a rebel rifle, and compelled to relinquish his mission of kindness — The rebel riflemen knew that it was one of their own comrades who was suffering, but no emotion of sympathy could restrain their fiendish malignity."

PHOTOGRAPHIC DISCOVERIES —A Spanish photographer has discovered a varnish which gives an astonishing brilliancy to photographs to which it is applied He keeps his invention secret, but the varnish is believed to consist of albumen M Matthys has also produced a similar effect by means of a thin coating of collodion

Photographs are now taken very successfully by the aid of the new magnetism light. Fifteen grains in the form of fine wire will burn a minute, and not cost more than a few cents. At the distance of eight feet from the latter the light produces a negative equal to any obtained from sun light under the most favorable circumstances, and by moving the light the harshness of the shadows and a distribution of light and shade are completely at the control of the operator. This opens a new page in photography

POWER OF A BIRD'S SONG —When we hear the song of the soaring lark, we may be sure that the entire atmosphere between us and the bird is filled with pulses, or undulations, or waves, as they are often called, produced by the little songster's organ of voice This organ is a vibrating instrument resembling, in principle, the reed of a clarionet. Let us suppose that we hear the song of a lark, elevated to a height of five hundred feet in the air. Before this is possible the bird must have agitated a sphere of air one thousand feet in diameter—that is to say, it must have communicated to seventeen thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight tons of air a motion sufficiently intense to be appreciated by our organs of hearing.—Tyndall's Glaciers of the Alps.

CITY POINT —There is an insignificant village at the junction of the James and Appomattox Rivers, just in the rear of General Butler's fortifications, which is called City Point The water from this place to Norfolk is deep, and the channel, though not the best, admits the passage of considerable vessels The James River, above the Junction, is navigable to Richmond by small craft. The distance by land is about twenty miles, but by water nearly sixty. The Appomattox is a small river, but admits the passage of schooners and steamers to Petersburg, a distance of ten miles

The popular explanation of the fact that a city failed to spring up at City Point, instead of Richmond and Petersburg, is quaint and possibly correct. It is said that in early times there was a general wish to plant a city at the junction of the two rivers, but that the land was owned by a stubborn old farmer, who objected to having a town in his neighborhood, on the ground that the people would steal his chickens.

Perhaps the results of the present war may break the spell which has doomed City Point to obscurity. Virginia once free, and scores of towns and cities will spring into being, in places little dreamed of.—Washington Chronicle.

☞ A Belgium paper says that petroleum oil lamps are affected by music—a certain note on a brass instrument puts them out. M Duhem extinguished eight lamps in succession by the sound of a trumpet.—He was one of the late M. Jullien's band, and is professor at the Brussels Conservatoire of Music. These petroleum lamps, probably were unable to appreciate the music of M. Duhém.

ONIONS FOR THE ARMY.—In New York city quite a brisk movement is on foot to procure onions for the Army of the Potomac. This is a wise sanitary measure. Nothing is more eagerly devoured by men living on salt meat and hard tack, than raw onions, and nothing is better to prevent scurvy and to promote the health of the soldiers in the field.

☞ A granite mill now building at Fall River, Mass, when completed will be the finest structure in that city. It will contain eight hundred and forty looms, and thirty-five thousand three hundred and twenty-eight spindles.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Reported expressly for the Miner's Register, at Central City, per Pacific Telegraph Line.

Philadelphia 12th.

The Baltimore American of last night says. Gen'l Tyler escaped from the rebels and had reached Elliot's mills.

Havre De Grace, 12.

Semi-official intelligence received, were, that yesterday afternoon a fight was progressing at Chrystal Springs. Parties from Belair, 16 miles from here, report 1000 rebel cavalry there last evening Trains are running to-day between Belair and Washington

Baltimore 12th, p. m.

Everything quiet around the city A force of rebels passed through Jamestown last night to join the main body. Business was at a stand-still

Philadelphia, 12th

There are now only 2 Government wires working south.

Rumors prevail of an attack by 15,000 rebels on the northern fortifications of Washington, but can not be traced to any definite source. Much excitement here, business entirely suspended and recruiting very brisk. Large numbers of men are ready to leave for Baltimore and Washington to-night

Chicago 12th

It is impossible to obtain anything reliable concerning the rebel raid in Maryland; the dispatches received were composed mainly of rumors. It is the opinion of those who are not liable to become unnecessarily alarmed, that this raid is nothing more than a cattle and horse stealing expedition It may prove otherwise—nothing yet has transpired to cause alarm to the safety of either Washington or Baltimore

New York, July 12.

Major Gen. Stanford, in reply to Mayor Dunther's letter of yesterday, says in answer to the present call of the President for troops, only 3,500 men have been obtained from this division, for a quota of 12,000 required. There still remains twelve conscripted regiments in the city The force is abundant to put down any demonstration against the peace and good order of the community.

Philadelphia, 12th

The Evening Telegraph of this city has the following

Fighting has been going on near Washington since morning, the rebels are approaching the defences from the northern side of the city in strong force

Special to the Bulletin from Harrisburg says our force is in possession of Frederick It is rumored that the rebels have recrossed the Potomac below Maryland Heights

The Northern Central Road is free from rebels now.

Philadelphia, 4 p. m, 12th.

The rebels again cut the wire between Baltimore and Washington,

New York, 12th

On Sunday night orders were received at the Navy Yard, to despatch at once to Baltimore as large a force of sailors as could be mustered at this station, to man impromtu batteries in the neighborhood of that city Admiral Palding immediately answered the call by sending quite a number from the School Ship North Carolina It is rumored that light drafts will be made on other navy yards for gunners

Baltimore, 5 p m, 12th.

Nothing is known of the state of affairs at Washington—all wires are down.

Havre de Grace 12.

The rebels have destroyed 450 feet of Gunpowder bridge and 500 more feet are partially destroyed.

Baltimore, 12.

We have nothing from Washington but idle street stories. No despatches no papers no trains The American has information from Frederick that the rebels were driven out yesterday. About nine o'clock in the morning the advance of Cole's cavalry dashed in and a fight took place in the streets between our troops and a small rebel guard, resulting in defeating the latter who were driven in, in the direction of Monocacy. During the time the rebels were in possession, their forage parties went out into the country to secure horses and cattle They came in with large droves of cattle, hogs and sheep. The main street was crowded with horses and cattle all of which were driven down to the works and sent across into Virginia.

Bradly Johnson's cavalry is ascertained to have cross the Pike at Carroll's Manor at 9 o'clock yesterday morning with an immense train of captured going towards the Potomac.

The conductor of the train from Washington at 9 o'clock yesterday morning reports no fighting up to the time he left at ½ before 1. The telegraph was cut from Annappolis junction We learn that the rebels obtained possession of the road at Bettsville and Bladdonsburg about one o'clock, and at latest accounts still held it, and were amusing themselves by destroying bridges and tearing up the track and are said to be in considerable force.

Memphis, 11th.

Gen. Washburn received an order detailing a guard of prominent secessionists to remain on trains, resulted in the entire cessation of firing on trains by guerrillas.

New York 13th.

The Herald has the following in relation to the capture of trains South of Havre de Grace. At twelve miles south of Gunpowder bridge pistol shots were heard, and the trains were stopped, when the rebels entered, pistols in hand, and ordered the passengers out. They were robbed of their watches and money, with cocked pistols at their heads. The cars were then set on fire

Gen Franklin, who was on the first train, was asked who he was, and replied that he was no one of any account. They passed on, but a Baltimore lady told them who he was, when they returned and demanded his papers, and took him in charge. The rebel force was about 250 strong. The lady prisoners were well treated, and appeared to be acquainted with many of the rebels, whom they treated most affectionately. Among the prisoners were several officers who escaped. The passengers were finally released, and had to walk back to Bush river, nine miles.

Chicago 13th.—A special from Philadelphia to the Tribune says that considerable skirmishing is now going on in the vicinity of Bladensburg. The rebels have been plundering in Anna and Arendel counties. It is believed they design making a demonstration on Annapolis There is sufficient force there to repel any attack they may make.

A gentleman from Frederick city, who has been in consultation at Headquarters at Baltimore, says he counted the enemy as they passed Frederick, and they number 38,000 infantry, with 140 pieces of artilery.

Annapolis, 12th.

The Democratic State Convention to-day nominated J. E. McDonald, for Governor. The old Democratic State officers were renominated.

A resolution denouncing the arbitrary arrest and suspension of the writ of habeas corpus and the suspension of the newspapers, and general policy of the National State Government, and in favor of a speedy peace passed.

A resolution endorsing Vallandigham was lost. Amid much confusion a substitute was adopted, pledging the democracy to maintain civil and personal liberty at all hazards

Salt Lake, 12th

Considerable feeling exists here in consequence of the appointment of Chas Hempstead as provost marshal, and Capt. Brown's company being quartered in this city. Recent meetings for the establishment of a gold basis. An immense emigration is passing through for Idaho and Cal. Fine quartz lodes have been found which will take time and capital to develope.

The market in Idaho is flooded Many goods will be brought here for sale. Large trains of goods are arriving daily.

LAST NIGHT'S REPORT.

Philadelphia 13th

Since the arrival of an early train it has been reported that Annapolis was captured by the rebels but it is unfounded as the telegraph to that place was working all right The rebels left four hundred and twenty of their wounded at Frederick.

New York 13th

The interview between Sec'y Fessenden and representatives of the banks of New York, Philadelphia and Boston, yesterday, resulted in nothing definite After a mutual exchange of sentiments, negotiations of loan was referred to a committee of officers of associated bankers of New York — Mr Fessenden stated that he had no definite policy to announce other than adjust himself to varying requirements of public service and was indisposed to increase the volume of currency unless such course inevitable The Secretary's views were regarded upon the whole with much favor.—

Philadelphia 13th, Baltimore 13th

Information received this morning places General Crook at Westminster moving south, and General Averill at Frederick.—A fight is reported to have occurred at the railroad near Westminster yesterday, in which the rebels were driven off with great loss A division has moved from Relay House to Annapolis Junction for the relief of Washington A messenger who got through from Washington last night, says our troops with veterans from Orleans can hold the city He thinks the rebels won't attempt to take it They have destroyed the railroad and will endeavor to retreat by way of Edward's Ferry

Baltimore 13th.

No indications this morning of any rebel force within twenty miles of the city The last of Gilmore's raiders crossed the Baltimore and Ohio Road last night beyond Elyville, on their way to join the main rebel force in the vicinity of Washington

Chicago 13th.

An officer from Sherman's army reports that our forces which had been held in check by Hardee's corps at Chattahoochie, laid pontoons across the river, on each side of Hardee, on Sunday last and gained the opposite bank, causing the rebels to retreat towards Atlanta. From this point to Atlanta the country is destitute of natural defences, being a barren plain.

OFFICIAL.

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Passed at the First Session of the Thirty-eighth Congress.

[PUBLIC—No 101]

AN ACT to prohibit certain sales of gold and foreign exchange

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it shall be unlawful to make any contract for the purchase or sale and delivery of any gold coin or or bullion to be delivered on any day subsequent to the day of making such contract, or for the payment of any sum, either infixed or contingent, in default of the delivery of any gold coin or bullion, or to make such contract upon any other terms than the actual delivery of such gold coin or bullion, and the payment in full of the agreed price thereof, on the day on which such contract is made, in United States notes or national currency, and not otherwise; or to make any contract for the purchase or sale and delivery of any foreign exchange to be delivered at any time beyond ten days subsequent to the making of such contract; or for the payment of any sum, either fixed or contingent, in default of the delivery of any foreign exchange, or upon any other terms than the actual delivery or such foreign exchange within ten days from the making of such contract, and the immediate payment in full of the agreed price thereof on the day of delivery in United States notes or national currency; or to make any contract whatever for the sale and delivery of any gold coin or bullion of which the person making such contract shall not, at the time of making the same, be in actual possession. And it shall be unlawful to make any loan of money or currency not being in coin to be repaid in coin or bullion, or to make any loan of coin or bullion to be repaid in money or currency other than coin.

Sec 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be further unlawful for any banker, broker, or other person, to make any purchase or sale of any gold coin or bullion, or of any foreign exchange, or any contract for any such purchase or sale, at any other place than the ordinary place of business of either the seller or purchaser, owned or hired and occupied by him individually, or by a partnership of which he is a member

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That all contracts made in violation of this act shall be absolutely void.

Sec 4 And be it further enacted, That any person who shall violate any provisions of this act shall be held guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not less than one thousand dollars, nor more than ten thousand dollars, or be imprisoned for a period not less than three months nor longer than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court, and shall likewise be subject to a penalty of one thousand dollars for each offence

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the penalties imposed by the fourth section of this act may be recovered in an action at law in any court of the United States, or any court of competent jurisdiction, which action may be brought in the name of the United States by any person who will sue for said penalty, one half for the use of the United States, and the other half for the use of the person bringing such action.—And the recovery and satisfaction of a judgment in any such action shall be a bar to the imposition of any fine for the same offence in any prosecution instituted subsequent to the recovery of such judgment, but shall not be a bar to the infliction of punishment by imprisonment, as provided by said fourth section

Sec 6 And be it further enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

[PUBLIC—No 105]

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act to extend the time for the withdrawal of goods from public stores and bonded warehouses, and for other purposes," approved 29th February, 1864.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all goods, wares, and merchandise in public stores and bonded warehouses, on which the duties are unpaid, and which shall have been in bond for more than one year in less than three years, may be entered for consumption and the bonds cancelled at any time before the first day of September next, on payment of duties and charges according to the laws in force at the time the goods shall be withdrawn

[PUBLIC—No 106.]

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act to authorize the Corporation of Georgetown, in the District of Columbia, to lay and collect a water tax, and for other purposes," approved May 24, 1862

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in all cases in which an original town lot in Georgetown, in the District of Columbia, entirely owned by the same person or persons, or any subdivisions of an original lot separately owned as aforesaid shall be situated at the intersection of two streets, so as to bind or front on both, and in which both fronts would be liable to the front-foot tax authorized by the act entitled "an act to authorize the Corporation of Georgetown, in the District of Columbia, to lay and collect a water tax, and for other purposes," approved May twenty-one, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, the said front-foot tax shall not be levied upon more than seventy-five feet of the two fronts of said lot or part of lot; and all beyond said number of feet shall be exempt therefrom Provided, That, for the purpose of avoiding inequality and hardship in laying said tax, it shall be lawful for the said Corporation of Georgetown, in such cases, to make such further exemptions from said front-foot tax, either by general laws or in individual cases, as to them may seem just and proper.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for said Corporation of Georgetown, in their discretion, instead of the front foot tax aforesaid, to lay and collect annually a general special tax not to exceed one fifth of one per cent. per annum on all the assessable property in said town, for the purpose of defraying the cost of distributing water through said town from the mains or pipes of the Washington aqueduct, which tax shall be exclusively appropriated to said object, shall be collected in the same manner as the general tax of said town, and shall cease whenever the cost of said distribution shall have been fully paid: Provided, That all persons liable to pay said tax shall be credited on account of the same with all sums heretofore paid by them on account of said front-foot tax, levied in pursuance of the act to which this is an amendment

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the third section of the act aforesaid be and the same is hereby repealed.

Approved, June 17, 1864.

——We have been shown by Mr Harry Gunnell, a specimen of the white porous quartz, taken a mine in Idaho Territory, in which he is interested He assured us that the piece in question was but a fair sample of the entire ores of a two foot crevice from which many cords had been and were now being taken, and that all of the quartz, though not of the same formation, is equally rich in gold. The lump in question was thickly studded on every side with beautiful gold, and if all were like this, it would not be extravagant to estimate the yield at $12,000 per cord, at the old coin rates Mr G. is one of Colorado's oldest, and most successful mining men, having discovered the Lode and opened the famous mine which now bears his name. From his experience in gold ores, we can but believe him well informed, and not likely to place an imaginary or false value upon any gold property.

—We have been shown a letter written from Bannack, June 23th, and signed by "Marshall Cook," in which is announced the death of Mr. Ferris, formerly of Mountain City. It seems that Mr. F. was at the time working in a drift for a Mr. Lockwood, and that while digging into the walls, the whole thing caved in upon him, burying him beyond the reach human aid Life was not extinct, however, and for some time he held conversation with his friends, and gave directions as to the disposal of his affairs.— Meanwhile, every effort was made by the excited crowd to rescue him from his fate, but all was unavailing. He expired several hours before his body was reached He was a most worthy and estimable man, one who had a host of friends, and who leaves a family to mourn his loss. The letter came directed to Mrs. Ferris, who had some time before left for Salt Lake, on her way to join him. The report has been sent her and it is probable she will return.

——The Virginia Union says. A gentleman who has just arrived from the East by the way of the overland stage, has been telling us of the immensity of emigration on the way to this country. He says that the number of wagons and people is astonishing. He found the Platte river so high that the wagons could not be taken across At Julesburg, a crossing place, he counted above six hundred wagons; and he is confident, that if all the wagons which he saw on the route were placed in a line, they would extend from Julesburg to Atchison—a distance of about four hundred miles!

The Virginia Union should have added that the "four hundred miles of wagons," which were unable to cross the Platte at Julesburg had all taken the left hand road, and are now pouring into the mountains of this territory, where they can find work, for a suitable remuneration Our mines have only lacked the labor to develope them, to place our territory far in advance of the more western regions and we rejoice to know that it is now being supplied; already the various companies begin to show signs of more vigorous work, and the yields are more encouraging than heretofore

AND

Eureka Gulch, - - - - Central City.

HENDRIE & BUTLER, Proprietors.

MINERS, MILLOWNERS, and the Public generally are hereby respectfully informed that this establishment is now fully supplied with material and all kinds required for mountain work, and prepared to fill all orders for

CAST OR WROUGHT IRON WORK.

Their trains from the Missouri river keep them constantly supplied with

IRON AND COKE, of the Best Quality.

When from low water or frontier disturbances, it is found impracticable or unsafe to rely upon the Missouri river for transportation, they have trains constantly freighting across Iowa, from the terminus of the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad to Council Bluffs and Plattsmouth, whence shipments are made to this point by their own trains. These arrangements insure a

Full Supply, at All Seasons, Without Fail

During the past summer, they have much more than DOUBLED the capacity of their establishment, having erected a

NEW MACHINE SHOP

twenty four by fifty feet, two stories high, into which they are preparing to place a new

Steam Engine, of Twenty-Five Horse Power.

They have also recently obtained a new and greatly improved

IRON PLANING MACHINE,

with which they will be enabled to make or repair machinery with an accuracy heretofore unattained, and with great rapidity
In addition to this, they have also added to their machinery new

Drill Presses, Screw Cutters, Lathes, &c.

All of the very latest and most approved patents—such as are in use in the best Machine Shops in the Eastern cities. With their new machinery in full operation, they will be enabled to execute all work in their line in a manner

By any establishment west of St Louis, Mo

They have also greatly enlarged the capacity of the FOUNDERY, so that they are now prepared to make THE LARGEST CASTINGS required for Quartz Mills or any kind of machinery in use in this Territory.
Particular attention will be given to the manufacture of

FREIBURG PANS.

They are prepared to cast any number of these pans on short notice, of the best material, and in the most satisfactory manner All persons desiring these pans are invited to call and examine their work, material, and prices, before ordering elsewhere.
Such are their present facilities, that any description of

required in this country can be manufactured and delivered in any part of the Territory,

WITHIN SIXTY DAYS

from the time the order for the same is received here
The senior member of the firm is proprietor of two other extensive founderies and machine shops—one at Council Bluffs, and the other at Burlington, Iowa. This establishment, therefore, has facilities for supplying the wants of this Territory possessed by no other in the country, as any article which it is inconvenient to manufacture here can be immediately forwarded by their trains from the other founderies.
Mr BUTLER, whose personal attention is given to the business at this point, has made it his constant study for three years past to ascertain and supply the wants of Miners and Mill Owners in this. None but THE BEST WORKMEN are employed, and the strictest attention is given to every department.

MILL STAMPS AND SHOES

Always on hand, and warranted of the best material
The shoes for Quartz Mill Stamps manufactured at Council Bluffs, are confessedly the best and most durable in use in the mountains They are made of superior iron, and chilled by a new process. A full suppl will be kept constantly on hand

Particular attention is given to the Building of

STEAM ENGINES

FOR HOISTING ORE AND WATER FROM SHAFTS

Several of these engines are now in use here, and others are in process of construction.

REPAIRING.

Machinery of all kinds repaired on short notice, in a workmanlike manner, and on reasonable terms.

ONE HUNDRED TONS FREIGHT

Now on the road between the Mississippi River and this point, including

FIVE STEAM ENGINES,
MILL STAMPS AND SHOES,
CASTINGS OF VARIOUS KINDS,
AND WROUGHT IRON WORK

Of every description Arrangements have been perfected by which they will hereafter be kept constantly supplied.

Thankful for the generous patronage heretofore bestowed, the proprietors are determined, by fair dealing, excellence of work, and strict attention to business, to merit a continuance of public favor.

For Excellence of Work and Reasonable Prices

WHEELER'S

Amalgamating & Separating Pans

It is acknowledged by all who have examined the principles and witnessed the operation of these pans, that they are decidedly superior for triturating and amalgamating purposes to any other in use The most important principle connected with these Pans, is the separation of

THE TRITURATING PROCESS

From that Extracting the Amalgum From the Sand

The chief cause of the loss of the precious metal arises from the passing off of the same in combination with the Quicksilver, during the process of trituration and in cleaning up By the introduction of the SEPARATING PAN to follow the triturating this loss is entirely avoided. In working these machines there is appreciable, and hence none of the precious metals Where these pans have been introduced and operated by the side of others on sands from the same vat,

NO LOSS OF QUICKSILVER,

THE WHEELER PANS

Have uniformly gained a large percentage of metal, over their competitors, as well as a still larger percentage in the amount of work performed.

J. WENTZ WILSON, of Black Hawk,

is the sole agent, for the manufacture and sale of the Wheeler Pan in Colorado Territory

Gold Chains made to order from native gold, rolled, 18 karats fine, of the most beautiful workmanship. Call in and examine patterns at Howard & Colony's, Main street, Central City June 17-tf

—Gold was reported selling on the streets yesterday for $60 per ounce

—We are glad to find Mr E. W Mills, representative of the house of Butterfield & Rollins, in town, collecting and attending to the business of his house in this region

—There will be Presbyterian service at Post Office Hall next Sunday morning at 10½ o'clock, also at the usual hour, 4 o'clock, p m Preaching in the morning by Rev A R Day, of Denver in the afternoon by the Pastor, Rev Theo D Marsh

—Rev C H Kirkbride will preach in Nevada Hall this (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock. Mr. K is the newly appointed pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Nevada, and wishes to see all the members of the Church at the close of the services

—We have been called upon by the Rev Mr. Kirbride, who has just arrived from the far east, to take charge of some wayward flock here among the hills Mr K. is a pleasant, entertaining, and free spoken gentleman, and we think well suited to the mission he has been selected to fulfil

—At a recent meeting of the Democratic Club in Hoboken, N J, Wm Cornell Jewett spoke in favor of annulling all the legislation and proclamations against the South, with a view to speedy peace, thereupon the Club adopted a resolution nominating Gen McClellan for the Presidency

—We are in ecstacies over the receipt of a full grown ripe red strawberry, presented to us by Charley Goodfellow. Charley is an admirer of nature's delicacies, and he had been spending the day in hugging the tiny fruits, in goodly quantities We know where's a glorious patch of them, and no one can find out from us except by noting the direction nearest opposite our fine cont tail, next Sunday morning early —To-day we are again compelled to issue upon a half sheet. The supply of paper in Colorado is for the time exhausted, and to prevent the recurrence of a temporary suspension, we resort to this method of prolonging the duration of our supplies—The paper dealers of the Territory had not estimated correctly the amount of paper that would be used by the various offices this season, and hence the frequent detentions of the various issues.

—Uncle Tom, after having wooed and won the mountain public for four consecutive nights, passed off the boards last evening to appear no more. We believe, from the appearance of the audience each night that nearly all must have witnessed it. If any there are, however, who have not, they can safely lament for the rest of their days, having missed one of the best things of the age, (as played by this excellent troupe)—To-night, (Friday) there will be no performance, owing to the immense preparation required for the production of Sir Walter Scott's masterpiece, "The Lady of the Lake," to be played on Saturday night—This, without exaggeration or coloring, is the finest piece now upon the American stage, and never fails to draw immense houses throughout the longest seasons, whenever presented before an appreciating public We are not advised that it will be performed more than one night, and would advise all to be present.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.—Brig. General Joseph P. Taylor, Commissary General of Subsistance, and brother of the lamented President, died in Washington on Wednesday, the 29th of June—The number of emigrants arrived at the port of New York since January 1st, is 23,411, an increase of 23,558 over the same time last year—Gold has fallen 20 per cent, in the hands of the Wall Street Shylocks, and still bears a downward tendency—Tom Hyer, he of the bruising proclivities, has passed in his checks, and gone to the final resting place—Jas. A Scoville, the man who wrote to the London Herald the secession correspondence, over the signature of "Manhattan," died at New York lately—San Francisco is to have a fire alarm telegraph, connecting all the stations, and ringing forth in a dozen places throughout the city, the number and locality of each and every conflagration. She also has a State Bank started, with a specie capital, all in the vaults, of $2,000,000—John Morgan is shaving the heads of all his Union prisoners captured in Kentucky, by way of retaliation for his loss of hair at Columbus—Col Ford, with a detachment of the Second Colorado, had a skirmish with Quantrel, in which he lost seven men.—The Mississippi is once more free from rebel batteries and guns, throughout its length—Gen Toombs, "unwilling to be idle when his State is invaded," has reported to Gen Wayne at Atlanta for duty, as a private—The cost of feeding the dogs of the city of Chicago is said to be greater than the amount required to subsist all the soldiers' families within the city limits.

—The Mack lode, in Gregory district, is the property of Messrs. Langrishe & Dougherty. The discovery claim is now being worked by them, at a depth of 25 feet with tolerably fair signs of success. They are at that depth already beginning to uncover a good crevice of rich iron, which induces the belief that there is something large beyond

The Essex is a new discovery of Mr. Borem, in Eureka district. It is described as a paying thing, and hopes are strong of future distinction among the many prominent lodes of our region.

The Union Company of New York, through their agents here, are driving operations on their property with a vigor betokening success Two of their shafts on the Bates are being driven rapidly in a crevice of good ores while their mill is being refitted with new stamps, and sundry pans, complete The representative of the company here apear to have the requisite energy to Colorado miners, whether they have the experience and necessary judgement, remains to be seen

Russell Gulch is every day becoming the scene of more extensive operations A. J VanDeren is running two mills of 12 stamps each, by the constant working of which he is unable to crush a half of the quartz brought to him Other mills, we believe, are industriously pounding up the numerous conglomerates at the rate of a cord per day, from the various crevices thereabouts The Saratoga is yielding enormously One of Mr VanDeren's mills is kept constantly running from this lode, and the piles of retort brought to town each Saturday evening show well for the accumulating fortune of Mr Bailey and his partner We saw one bar of the Saratoga, yesterday, weighing something upward of 37 oz and 14 pwts which coins $18 80 per oz. The Grenada Gold Mining Company are laying the foundation for their new mill in Leavenworth Gulch It will be a fine mill establishment when completed, being 60x100 feet in dimensions, and will be filled by good machinery There will be thirty stamps, we learn and as many Bartolapans A new road is being completed around from the claims to the mill which will prove of immense value to the company George Mitchell is the active and live Superintendent of affairs here No better man could have been chosen for the position The Quartz Hill Gold Mining Co, Mr Mansur Agt, are raising the frame work of their new mill building at Nevada This is also designed for a good and substantial structure, more for utility and permanence than beautiful display

—Mrs Sinclair and Mrs Curtis have opened a millinery establishment, a short distance below James E. Lyon & Co.'s place on Lawrence street, at which they are offering for sale the neatest goods ever offered in their line, in the mountains. They are ladies of excellent taste, and those who patronize them may be sure of getting something nice. The ladies say their style of getting up hats is perfectly delightful. 8

—Thirty cases champagne at J. P. Henry's.

—Twenty cases assorted bottled liquors at J P Henry's

—A fine supply of belting, gum packing, rubber hose, and rope for sale at John A Nye & Co's, Main street, Central City July 9th, 1864 1w.

OUR TICKET.

ANDREW JOHNSON,

Misrepresentation.

A short time since the Journal in its blind and intemperate zeal to do the dirty work of its Copperhead allies, in villifying and misrepresenting loyalists and loyal sentiments gave what it asserted to be an extract from the Chicago Tribune, than which there is no more thoroughly loyal journal in the North. The paragraph as given was as follows:

"Give us a rebel victory; let our army be destroyed, Maryland conquered, Washington captured, the President exiled, and the Government destroyed; give up all these, and any other calamities that can result from defeat and ruin, sooner than a victory with McClellan as General."

Accompanying this were the characteristic comments that sentiments so odious would call forth and all designed to make the Tribune as odious as possible. Speaking of it the Tribune of the 2d says.

It is scarcely necessary with the readers of the TRIBUNE to pronounce the above a gross and palpable forgery, done in the rebel service No such sentiment ever appeared in our columns. No Copperhead editor ever attributed it to us without the consciousness that he was telling a willful and malignant lie. It is not a thing to be mistaken about, and plain language to characterize the acts is better than any other

Thus this fugacious soldier stands convicted of the meanest kind of falsehood and forgery, done so in the service of the Copperheads and with no other interest than to villify and traduce a leading loyal journal simply because it expressed sentiments in favor of a State government in Colorado Could the openly malignant Copperhead have done more than this professed Unionist has done in the article above given? And yet with his past record and present position before us, he is excessively wroth, and threatens personal violence if we do not let him down easy and cease to show by the records of his own making that he is as politically unreliable, and treacherous as his own admissions render him in another field in which he at one time figured Loyal men will not fail to observe in this wicked abuse of a loyal journal, evidence of treachery and truckling to Copperheads that cannot be covered by the loud mouthed profession of this mendacious trickster.

The Adjournment of Congress.

As a nation we have many things for which we ought to be thankful, the most recent of which is "Congress has adjourned" Never before, we think, have the people expected more, and never got less of good from any Congress ever assembled A long, lazy session of seven months, has but served to show the inherent meanness of of the opposition and the contemptible want of back-bone in a majority of the friends of the Administration in Congress. It spent weeks in debate upon taxing whiskey, and in tinkering the tax bill and finally "petered out" by passing a tax bill that will not raise one-half the amount required It refused to allow of amendments to the Constitution so as to abolish slavery, it refused to provide necessary measures for the increase of the army, it spent weeks in trying to tax the mines and wound up by passing a postal law that obliges the people of the territories to pay four times the postage on the same matter as that paid by other people of the states. Almost its only praiseworthy acts are the repeal of the Fugitive Slave law and the passage of the "Enabling Acts" for the territories by which they may escape the evils of legislation such as those under which we have labored for the for the last seven months Yet we cannot but feel a lively regret as the fact that the same Congress has yet another session to hold and that unless we become a state we must remain as clay in hands of the potter, to be manipulated and moulded as shall best suit the interest of Ben. Holliday and our sweet scented delegate, Bennett.

But as to the latter, we have but little to fear, the people are heartily sick of a delegate who would ruin the territory for his own private ends, and whom they can never bring to the test of a vote because he has none, but who is able to be more disinterested to us for the reason that he feels no responsibility—and they will gladly accept the offer to become a state that they may thus not only have a potential voice in the legislation but place upon the Representatives the responsibilities which such a position must bring, and make them answerable to the bar of public opinon, and to a sense of what is just and right, and by so doing cut short the career of one whose every act seems to be directed to the detriment of the people whom he *mis*represents.

The Constitution.

The Denver News of last night contains a full and complete copy of the Constitution adopted at the recent session of the Constitutional Convention, to the utter exclusion of all other matter, excepting telegraphic report. From the great length of the document we are unable to give it in full during the present press of work on hands. We will to-morrow, however give a condensed summary of the whole, showing the important features, and giving those clauses which are of greatest public interest. A dispatch was received by O. A. Whittemore, Esq., dated Washington 11th, and signed Jas M. Ashley, stating that the Constitution must be submitted to a vote on the second Tuesday in September next.—This brings it with the Territorial election

BY TELEGRAPH.

Reported expressly for the Miner's Register, at Central City, per Pacific Telegraph Line

New York, July 11th

A Philadelphia Enquirer correspondent estimates our loss in the fight at Monocacy at 1,000, mostly captured

When the rebels took possession at Magnolia, they intercepted a large number of dispatches, and among them was one from Secretary Stanton to General Cadwalader.

Philadelpia, 11th

We have no communication with Washington and there is great excitement here The conductor of a train which was intercepted at Magnolia yesterday, says after we stopped the rebels went through the train, capturing all the officers, among them was Major Gen Franklin. They also took watches and money from the passengers, unloaded the baggage and set fire to the train, burning four coaches, baggage cars and two locomotives

It is now ascertained that two trains have been burned

A Philadelphia, Willmington and Baltimore dispatch from the Conductor of the second train captured says, after setting the train on fire, they started it back, and it went half way over the bridge at Gunpowder creek, where it stopped, causing the bridge to take fire

Havre De Grace, 11th

The force of rebels which captured Magnolia number about two hundred. After capturing and burning two trains and firing the freight houses, they started in a southerly direction towards Gen Cadwalader's residence, for the purpose of burning it, which they have probably accomplished ere this. But it is not thought that the road is injured to any great extent

Artillery firing has been heard since eight this evening in a southwesterly direction—perhaps at Brock river

Philadelphia, 10 p m, 11th

Our gunboats have commenced firing on the rebels at Brisk Hill on Bush river. This is the nearest river to Baltimore

Trains from here this morning went as far as Perrysville Their return noon train went only to Wilmington

There is no sign of rebels at the former place

Later—Our gunboats have driven the the rebels from Bush river, and re-captured one of our locomotives.

New York, 11th

Sunday p. m.—The steamer Electric Spark from this port to Havana and Orleans was attacked and taken possession of by the privateer Florida When the Florida first discovered her, she was distant fifteen miles northward making for the Electric Spark, which gained rapidly, and when seven or eight miles distant, the Florida hoisted the English flag, which kept floating until within 1,200 yards of the steamer, when the rebel colors were substituted and a shot was fired at the Electric Spark, closely followed by another across her bows The steamer then hove to, and was boarded by a party from the Florida, who took possession of her and ordered the Captain on board of the pirate with his papers Personal property not destroyed or taken, but the Spark with all the mails was retained by the English schooner Lave, who was previously boarded by the Florida and was near by at the time of the capture of the Electric Spark Both steamers soon headed for the schooner which hove to until they came up, when the Captain, crew and passengers, forty in number, were put on board the Lave, and arrived last evening

The Electric Spark had a very narrow escape from destruction, being mistaken for a transport. Had she not stopped after the third shot a broadside from the rebel battery, which was in readiness for her, would have destroyed her.

New York, 12th.

The World prints the following extravagant private letter, dated at Lexington, Va. June 12th:

Yesterday we marched from Midway here, the advance being quickened by the sound of Cook's guns engaged with McCausland, who held the place They defended it with great obstinacy, burning bridges, and playing on the Hills as we came with shells, and bushwhacked us from behind every tree. This was madness on their part, as we had beaten them before, being joined by Gens. Cook & Merritt, and now, of course are able to whip them again It seems however, that McCausland is waiting for Breckinridge, who had been detained with his division from Lee's army, to drive us back, or at least hold us between there and Richmond or Lynchburg, which error we strike for the supposed plan is to put the broken brigades of the valley under Imboden, Jenkins, Mudwall Jackson, McCausland, Jones, &c, rallied together under a division of Lee's Veterans, and then give us another trial for the valley. This morning they destroyed the Va. Military institute. To-morrow we move at daylight, but I have no idea of what direction. Our situation is pressing, but critical. If Lee is not fully employed by Grant, he can send down troops enough via Lynchburg Railroad and overwhelm us, but if Grant will hold all his force in Richmond, this column can make the rebel Capitol untenable by cutting off the last main artery of supplies.

New York, 12th.

The raiders destroyed all the lines of telegraph on the turnpike, between Philadelphia and Baltimore.

Harrisburg, 11.

The headquarters here are no longer in communication with the authorities at Washington. The department several days since telegraphed Gen. Couch and invested him with ample power to meet any contingency. It is understood that at least eight bridges have been destroyed on the Northern Central road between Monk Town and Cockeysville.

A rebel deserter reporting himself to be a native of Indiana says the rebel force invading the north is very large. There are three brigades of cavalry, Breckinridge's and another division of infantry. Their movements are kept a profound secret from the officers. Their object, however, must be to destroy Washington or Baltimore.

The deserter belonged to the force that drove Hunter from Lynchburg after which large reinforcements arrived from Richmond and marched northward. Hunter's force occupied Martinsburg. Another body of our troops hold Hagerstown. The rebels still occupy South Mountain Pass while their main body demonstrate on Baltimore, and Washington between Monocacy and Baltimore.

Cape May, 11.

The crews of the barques Golconda, Berry, Greenland, and Lelinda leave here this morning for Philadelphia. All of these vessels were captured and burned by the privateer Florida off Cape Henry Charles.

New York, 11

Mayor Gunther has written a letter to Maj. Gen. Stanford protesting against the sending of any large portion of the city militia as he entertains grave apprehensions that their withdrawal from the city at a time when the depreciation of the currency is bearing heavily on the masses might tempt lawless and evil disposed persons to avail themselves of what would seem to them a favorable opportunity for arson and plunder

Baltimore 11.

The news from Washington is exciting It says that skirmishing is going on on the Rockville road. It commenced at an early hour this morning and continued by an advance of the rebels to a point within four miles of Fennallytown, when their progress on that road was stopped, and they disappeared in another direction Subsequently we hear of them skirmishing between 11 and 12 o'clock on and around 7th street turnpike near the Clagget farm It is reported that the rebels burned the residence of Frank P Blair to-day There were 800 infantry in force at Rockville last night

The panic stricken refugees arriving to-day from the vicinity of Edward's ferry report them crossing at that place yesterday and to-day, in numbers estimated at from 12,000 to 30,000 under Breckinridge.

It is believed that they are advancing this way Imboden lends then cavalry

It is said that the rebels are not of sufficient numbers to attack Washington and it is not their purpose to do so

We have just received the following

The rebel army of invasion marched dow the valley 45,000 strong, including 8 000 cavalry, under the command of Breckinridge, Ransom, Imboden, McCautin and Longstreet were at Gordonsville on Tuesday with additional forces to join the invading army They intend to take Washington by surprise.

The Virginia Central Railroad is again in running order from Richmond to Stanton In the fight Mosby captured 81 cavalrymen, one 12 pounder and killed 20

Later—Up to 2.15 the state of affairs at Rabbit Branch P O continued about the same During the morning the was no engagement Skirmishing is going on at intervals The enemy have not made their apearance in range of our guns so far

OFFICIAL.

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES

Passed at the First Session of the Thirty-eighth Congress

[PUBLIC—No 83]

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act making a grant of land to State of Iowa, in alternate sections, to aid in the construction of certain railroads in said State," approved May 15, 1856

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Mississippi and Missouri Railroad Company, a corporation established by the laws of the State of Iowa, and to which the said State granted a portion of the land grant mentioned in the title of this act, to aid in the construction of a railroad from Davenport to Council Bluffs in said State, may modify or change the location of the uncompleted portion of its line, as shown by the map thereof now on file in the General Land Office of the United States, so as to secure a better and more expeditious line for connexion with the Iowa branch of the Union Pacific railroad: Provided, nevertheless, That said new line, if located, shall in every case pass through the corporate limits of the cities of Des Moines and Council Bluffs, and the right of way over the public lands of the United States is hereby granted to said railroad company for that purpose: Provided, that said line shall pass through the town of Newton, in Jasper county, or as near said town as may be found practicable, and not further north of said town than the north line of section twenty-two, township eighty north, of range nineteen, according to the United States surveys, if the citizens of the county of Jasper shall first pay to said company the difference in cost, if any, between the line proposed by the company and the one contemplated by this proviso including extra cost of right of way, if any, said difference in cost to be estimated by competent engineers to be selected by the parties

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That whenever such new location shall have been established, the said railroad company shall file in the General Land Office at Washington a map, definitely showing such new location; and the Secretary of the Interior shall cause to be certified and conveyed to said company from time to time, as the road progresses out of any public lands now belonging to the United States not sold, reserved, or otherwise disposed of, or to which a pre emption claim or right of homestead settlement has not attached, and on which a bona fide settlement and improvement has not been made under color of title derived from the United States or from the State of Iowa within six miles of such newly located line, an amount of land per mile equal to that originally authorized to be granted to said road by the act to which this is an amendment; and if the amount of land granted by the original act to aid in the construction of said railroad shall not be found within the limit of six miles from such line, then such selections may be made along such line within twenty miles thereof: Provided, That the said company shall not be entitled to, and shall not receive, any land under this grant which is situate within fifteen miles of the line of the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad, as indicated by the map of said road, now on file in the General Land Office

Sec 3 And be it further enacted, That the Burlington and Missouri River railroad Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Iowa, and to which said State granted a portion of the land grant mentioned in the title of this act to aid in the construction of a railroad from Burlington in said State to the Missouri river, shall be entitled to receive, and the Secretary of the Interior shall cause to be certified and conveyed to said company from time to time, as the road progresses, out of any public lands now belonging to the United States not sold, reserved, or otherwise disposed of, or to which a pre-emption claim or right of homestead settlement has not attached, and on which a bona fide settlement and improvement has not been made under color of title derived from the United States or from the State of Iowa, within six miles of said road, as now located, an amount of land per mile equal to that mentioned in the act to which this act is an amendment, as intended to aid in the construction of said road; and if the amount of land granted by the original act to aid in the construction of said road shall not be found within the limit of six miles from the line of said road, then such selections may be made along such line within twenty miles thereof.

Sec 4. And be it further enacted, That the Ceder Rapids and Missouri River Railroad Company, a corporation established under the laws of the State of Iowa, and to which the said State granted a portion of the land mentioned in the title to this act, may modify or change the location of the uncompleted portion of its line, as shown by the map thereof now on file in the General Land Office of the United States, so as to secure a better and more expeditious line to the Missouri river, and to a connection with the Iowa branch of the Union Pacific Railroad, and for the purpose of facilitating the more immediate construction of a line of railroads across the State of Iowa, to connect with the Iowa branch of the Union Pacific Railroad Company aforesaid, the said Cedar Rapids and Missouri [River] Railroad Company is hereby authorized to connect its line by a branch with the line of the Mississippi and Missouri Railroad Company, and the said Cedar Railroad Company shall be entitled for such modified line to the same lands and to the same amount of lands per mile, and for each connecting branch the same amount of land per mile, as originally granted to aid in the construction of its main line subject to the conditions and forfeitures mentioned in the original grant, and, for the said purpose, right of way through the public lands of the United States is hereby granted to said company And it is further provided, That whenever said modified main line shall have been established or such connecting line located, the said Cedar Rapids and Missouri River Railroad Company shall file in the General Land Office of the United States a map definitely showing such modified line and such connecting branch aforesaid; and the Secretary of the Interior shall reserve and cause to be certified and conveyed to said company, from time time, as the work progresses on the main line, out of any public lands now belonging to the United States, not sold, reserved, or otherwise disposed of, or to which a pre-emption right or right of homestead settlement has not attached, and on which a bona fide settlement or improvement has not been made under color of title derived from the United States or from the State of Iowa, within fifteen miles of the original main line, an amount of land equal to that originally authorized to be granted to aid in the construction of the said road by the act to which this is an amendment And if the amount of lands per mile granted, or intended to be granted, by the original act to aid in the construction of said railroad shall not be found within the limits of the fifteen miles therein prescribed, then such selections may be made along said modified line and connecting branch within twenty miles thereof Provided however, That such new located or modified line shall pass through or near Boonsboro', in Boon county, and intersect the Boyer river not further south than a point at or near Dennison in Crawford county And provided further, That in case the main line shall be so changed or modified as not to reach the Missouri river at or near the forty-second parallel north latitude, it shall be the duty of said company, within a reasonable time after the completion of its road to the Missouri river, to construct a branch road to some point in Monona county, in or at Ohawa City; and to aid in the construction of such branch the same amount of lands per mile are hereby granted as for the main line, and the same shall be reserved and certified in the same manner, said lands to be selected from any of the unappropriated lands as hereinbefore described within twenty miles of said main line and branch; and said company shall file with the Secretary of the Interior a map of the location of the said branch And provided further, That the lands hereby granted to aid in the construction of the connecting branch aforesaid shall not vest in said company nor be encumbered or disposed of except in the following manner: When the Governor of the State of Iowa shall certify to the Secretary of the Interior that said company has completed in good running order a section of twenty consecutive miles of the main line of said road west of Nevada, then the Secretary shall convey to said company one-third, and no more, of the lands granted for said connecting branch. And when said company shall complete an additional section of twenty consecutive miles, and furnish the Secretary of the Interior with proof as aforesaid, then the said Secretary may convey to the said company another third of the lands granted for said connecting branch; and when said company shall complete an additional section of twenty miles, making in all sixty miles west of Nevada, the Secretary, upon proof furnished as aforesaid, may convey to, the said company the remainder of said lands to aid in the construction of said connecting branch: Provided, however, That no lands shall be conveyed to said company on account of said connecting branch road until the Governor of the State of Iowa shall certify to the Secretary of the Interior that the same shall have been completed as a first-class railroad. And no land shall be conveyed to said company situate and lying within fifteen miles of the original line of the Mississippi and Missouri railroad, as laid down on a map on file in the General Land Office. Provided, further, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior, and he is hereby required, to reserve a quantity of land embraced in the grant described in this section sufficient, in the opinion of the Governer of Iowa, to secure the construction of a branch railroad from the town of Lyons, in the State of Iowa, so as to connect with the main line in or west of the town of Clinton in said State, until the Governor of said State shall certify that said branch railroad is completed according to the requirements of the laws of said State, Provided further, That nothing herein contained shall be construed as to release said company from its obligation to complete the said main line within the time mentioned in the original grant: Provided, further, That nothing in this act shall be construed to interfere with, or in any manner impair any rights acquired by any railroad company named in the act to which this is an amendment, or the rights of any corporation, person or persons, acquired through any such company; nor shall it be construed to impair any vested right of property, but such rights are hereby reserved and confirmed. Provided, however, That no lands shall be conveyed to any company or party whatsoever, under the provisions of this act and the act amended by this act, which has been settled upon and improved in good faith by a bona fide inhabitant, under color of title derived from the United States or from the State of Iowa adverse to the grant made by this act or the act to which this act is an amendment.—But each of said companies may select an equal quantity of public lands as described in this act within the distance of twenty miles of the line of each of said roads in lieu of lands thus settled upon and improved by bona fide inhabitants in good faith under color of title as aforesaid.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the Mississippi and Missouri Railroad Company shall have the right to transfer and assign all or any part of the grant hereby made to said company to any other company, or person or persons, if, in the opinion of said company, the construction of the said railroad across the State of Iowa will be thereby sooner and more satisfactorily completed; but assignee shall not in any case be released from the liabilities and conditions accompanying this grant, nor acquire perfect title in any other manner than the same would have been acquired by the grantee herein named, Provided, That said transfer and assignment shall first be authorized by the Governor of the State of Iowa.

Sec. 6 And be it further enacted, That the Dubuque and Sioux City Railroad Company may so far change their line between Fort Dodge and Sioux City as to secure the best route between those points, said change shall not impair the right to, nor change the location of, their present land grant A map of the change shall be filed with the Commissioner of the General Land Office within one year after the passage of this act.

Sec 7 And be it further enacted, That all of the conditions and limitations contained in the act to which this act is an amendment, and not expressly changed by this act, shall attach to and run with the grants made by this act, except as the said conditions and limitations have been modified, and may hereafter be modified, by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa

Sec 8. And be it further enacted, That no lands hereby granted shall be certified to either of said companies until the Governor of the State of Iowa shall certify to the Secretary of the Interior that the said company has completed, ready for the rolling stock, within one year from the first day of July next, a section of not less than twenty miles from the present terminus of the completed portion of said railroad, and in each year thereafter an additional section of twenty miles, but the number of sections per mile originally authorized shall be certified to each company upon proof, as aforesaid, of the completion of the additional sections of the road as aforesaid And upon the failure of either company to complete either section as aforesaid, to be annually built, the portion of the land remaining uncertified shall become subject to the control and disposition of the Legislature of the State of Iowa, to aid in the completion of said road

Sec. 9 And be it further enacted, That all lands here after certified to either of the land grant railroads in said State, and lying opposite any completed section of such road, shall be offered for sale by the company to which they shall be certified within three years from the completion of such section, if then certified, and if not, then within three years from the date of such certificate at reasonable prices, and if not all sold within that period then during the fourth year all such lands remaining unsold shall be exposed to public sale, after previous notice posted at the county seat of the county in which such lands shall be situated, to the highest bidder, and in tracts not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres each.

Approved, June 2, 1864.

[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 36.]

A Resolution to provide for the revision of the laws of the District of Columbia.

Whereas the revised code of the District of Columbia, prepared under the authority of Congress, entitled "An act to improve the laws of the District of Columbia, and to codify the same," approved March third, eighteen hundred and fifty-five, and which was published by order of Congress in the year eighteen hundred and fifty seven; and whereas said code is believed to have been a comprehensive, complete and accurate compilation of the laws of said District at the period of its execution, and that measures should be taken to have the work brought down to the present time and perfected Therefore—

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Committees on the District of Columbia of the two houses of Congress, respectively, be instructed to cause said code to be so revised, amended, and corrected, and also the laws of Congress for said District passed since the compilation aforesaid, as shall adapt the same to the present condition of the laws, and may employ not more than two suitable persons on the preparation of the work, at a compensation of ten dollars per day for the time employed. And said code so prepared shall be printed by direction of said committees in a neat and convenient form for the use of the committees and Congress; and said committees shall report the same to their respective Houses at the next session of Congress for adoption.

Approved, June 18, 1864

[NOTE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—The preamble of the foregoing resolution is promulgated precisely as it is found in the original.]

☞ Mr. Wilson, Chairman of the Military Committee of the United States Senate, states that since the 17th of October last, 600,000 white men and 100,000 negroes have enlisted or re-enlisted with the Union armies, and $125,000,000 have been spent in bounties since that time

Attachment Notice

Colorado Territory, County of Gilpin, First Judicial District, Of the September Term A. D. 1864 of the District Court in and for said County James Patterson vs. A. C. Edwards

Attachment—To A. C Edwards, the above named defendant, you are hereby notified that the above plaintiff James Patterson, did on the sixth day of April, A D 1864, file in the office of the clerk of the court above named, an affidavit stating that you the said defendant were justly indebted to him, the said plaintiff, in the sum of one hundred and fifty two and 11-100 dollars, and that you the said defendent was a non-resident of the Territory of Colorado, and the said plaintiff having given bond and security according to law, a writ of attachment was duly issued out of said court against you, the said defendant, and the same being placed in the hands of the sheriff of said county was by him duly executed and returned into the said clerk's office with the following endorsement: "I have duly levied the within attachment on claims No. two, three and five on the Virginia lode in Gregory Mining District, also water privilege and mill site in Chase Gulch where said Virginia lode crosses the gulch 250 feet below and 50 feet above said lode and 150 feet wide. Now you the said A C Edwards are hereby notified that unless you appear before said court at said term and answer, plead or demur in said action you will be defaulted and judgment will be rendered against you and the property so attached will be sold to satisfy said indebtedness.
